AMUSEMENTS

Tent Show Is Good

The Macy-Baird Comedians made their initial bow to a Grants Pass audience last night that practically filled their big tent theater.

Their opening bill, "Saints and Sinners," is a really worth while melo-dramatic-comedy, it has a most interesting story, plenty of strong, exciting situations, a pretty love theme, and good, clean, wholesome comedy predominating throughout the entire four acts. Tonight "Today on the Spot."

At the Oregon

"In Old Kentucky," an adaptation of the stage success of the same name, now presented at the Oregon theater, offers Anita Stewart a splendid chance to express her charm and talent. It is a picture of drama and romance. Thrill follows thrill in rapid succession, and these are punctuated with scenes of heart interest and pathos and sentiment. A spectacular picture—the biggest picture in which the beautiful star has ever appeared.

You will see a great horse race, a wonderful fox chase, a feud between mountaineers, a battle between moonshiners and revenue officers, a leap of a chasm by a girl on horseback, and other thrilling scenes. Miss Stewart is supported by a capable cast that includes such favorite players as Mablon Hamilton and Edward Coxen.

PETE ME BOY!

If you ever did have a doubt in your peppy old soul as to how Camels stand nationally, take a fly over the country! Gee, every time I swing around I see men smoking Camels or buying Camels or talking Camels! Every newspaper and magazine flashes Camel ads! Every billboard spills a scream about Camels!

Pete, you never can beat Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos! Certainly does put it over either kind smoked straight! And say, do you get that mild Camel body! Oh gee, Pete, fire-up another Camel—That's the answer!

Now listen: I'm going to draw up some Camel ads and shoot 'em in and I'm going to tell the world what's what about Camels! Bet you I can clean-up on a job like that—and it's all inspiration right from Camels themselves! For instance, Pete, I'm slapping this sketch down here to put you wise—Savvy? I'll tell 'em old pencil, I see the point!

I'll drop you a line from Chicago and tell you s'more! I'll have a baleful of stunts by the time this letter blows into your hands!

And—you know me, kid!
