DON'T NEVER GET THE IDEA THAT THE BUSINESSMEN WHOSE ADS YOU READ IN THESE COLUMNS ARE ADVERTISING TO HELP THE PAPER OR TO MAKE GOOD FEELERS OF THEMSELVES! THEY'RE GOOD FEELERS O.K. BUT THERE'S GOOD BUSINESSMEN TOO AND THE REASON THEY ADVERTISE IS BECAUSE IT PAYS THEM! Y'GETHERUP!

POSITION CALLS FOR ABILITY

Englishman Chosen to Administer Affairs in Jerusalem Has Been Given a Hard Task.

The office of governor of Jerusalem, once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Col. Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge university and son of the dean of Rochester college, England.

His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man. Jerusalem is a city of divisions, where whatever may come of the future, for the moment Zionists and Arabs are passionately divided, and to steer a just path between them and induce them to join him on that path is thankless work.

It is to that task, however, that he chiefly devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite Jerusalem society, where French, Italians, British, Americans, rabbis, Zionists, leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city are brought together and in the course of debate led to see that they have in common a single citizenship. His motto as governor is "unify and be friends."

Colonel Storrs was one of the prime movers in the establishment of an independent Arab kingdom. He is thirty-eight years old.

Solomon's Temple. It is believed today by many savants that the Old Testament description of Solomon's temple was written by the Jews after their return from the captivity, with the memory of the real splendors of Babylon fresh in their minds, says Anstruther Mackay, writing in the Atlantic Monthly. It is possible that the actual temple was a simple place of worship. If it had been otherwise it is hardly possible that no remains of it would be visible today, seeing that the temples of Egypt, which are so much older, remain, in some cases, almost intact.

The Lord Needed No Help. The cook in a southern family, a "mammy" of the type now passing, was assured by two surgeons whose services had been enlisted by her employer that her condition was such that an immediate operation was necessary. Mammy listened respectfully but declined their service in the following terms: "T's jest as much obliged to you gentlemen as I kin be but of de dead Lawd has done made up his mind to call me home, I reckon he kin translate me without no assistance."

Life. Life is a great deal like a ball game which is never over until the last inning is played and the great umpire says, "Out." And by good batting and folding (right thinking and temperate living) the game may possibly go into extra innings. What kind of a game are you playing, a seven-inning affair or an overtime contest?—Arkansas Thomas Oct.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
—is maintained by the state in order that the young people of Oregon may receive, without cost, the benefits of a liberal education.

The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the Graduate School, the School of Physical Education, and the professional Schools of Law, Medicine (at Portland), Architecture, Commerce, Journalism, Education and Music.

High standards of scholarship are made possible by an able faculty, well equipped laboratories and a library of nearly 100,000 volumes.

Supervised athletics are encouraged and every attention given the health and welfare of the students.

With a heightened confidence gained by the recent expression of public support, the University is now entering upon an era of large development and extended usefulness.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER SAVES THREE WAYS

—A moderate priced Baking Powder of greatest merit. Honestly made. Honestly sold. Economical in every way. Every particle is full of actual leavening value. A full money's worth.

—You save time when you use it. Calumet is all baking powder. It begins to raise bakings the instant they are put into the oven. You don't have to keep "peeping" to see if bakings are all right. You know they are. Calumet is sure—never fails. That's economy. And true economy—in cost—in use—in time.

One trial will prove it and show you in results why millions of shrewd, thrifty housewives prefer Calumet to all other brands.

The unfailing strength of Calumet guarantees perfect results. Not only saves flour—sugar—eggs, etc.—but saves Baking Powder. You use only a teaspoonful— you use two teaspoonfuls or more of most other brands.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

HAVE YOU NOTICED THIS?

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16 oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

OLD PAL PETE:

This is a P. S. to the letter I wrote you on the buzzing Lirwited. Kid, for a fact, I'm hitting 13 on making up Camel advertisements. And I'll say it right here! Porter, give us the lights!

Just skimmed another swell Camel fact! Stop this: Guess I've smoked a million Camels! Pete, they never tired my taste yet!!!! And, old socks, put Camels to the test! Then you'll wise up that Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette after-taste nor unpleasant cigarette odor!

That's some smoke news, I'll say, when you been trying to fuss the "straight" brands! And, old shoe, you ought to know, they gave you a lacing!

What makes a dent on my disposition is that while Camels are the mildest cigarette and the mellowest cigarette any man can buy they've got all the "body" you ever heard tell of!

Why Pete, I got as many new selling ideas about Camels as there are hairs on a purr-kitty's tail!

Drop your old lamps down here,—how's that for blazing the joy Camels pass out!

Me for more of 'em

Shorty.
