Hop insurance, T. M. Stott, 79 Mrs. G. W. Sheller and son left this morning for Portland where they will spend the next week. Mrs. Sheller is a recent arrival here and likes the climate so well that she has decided to remain here.

J. E. Porter, of Paradise, Cal., says that his home town is well named. Mr. Porter had to come to Grants Pass, however, to find what was lacking to make it a few degrees better. He left this morning for Iowa where he also has property interests.

Mrs. Edward Morris and son, Al, have been spending the summer here on their orchard tract in Tokay Heights. They left this morning for Portland and will go from there to their home at Muskogee, Okla. They plan to spend every summer in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Best and daughters, Misses Ruby and Violet returned yesterday evening from a trip which took them as far north as the Canadian line. They visited there with their son, Earl, who is in the government service.

No Concert Tonight—

There will be no band concert tonight owing to the rain. A fine program had been planned for the evening according to Director Higgenbotham and this will be given next time. A number of solos have been arranged, the band having progressed so well that the more difficult pieces will be attempted.

Carriers Wanted—

Boys or girls with wheels wanted, one route now open. Bonus paid for long service. Apply Courier office.

Married in Michigan—

The Mt. Clemens, Mich., Daily Leader announces the marriage of Winthrop C. Hall, formerly of Grants Pass, now of Eugene, to Miss Carmelita Hill, of Mt. Clemens, on August 26th.

Another Open Air Dance—

At Gold Hill Saturday, the 11th, a Portland popular 5-piece orchestra to furnish the music. Come and have a good time. 72

Brings in Buck—

Deputy Sheriff Lister and Assessor Pollock went out on the trail of the big fellows today. They returned shortly after noon with a big fellow. Mr. Lister claims to have made the killing and in the face of the shooting record made by the assessor a few days ago, his statements may be believed.

S. P. Cleans Up—

The Southern Pacific at least practices what it preaches. Last night an article was printed in which the company urged warehouses to clean up. This morning a number of men have been at work cleaning up the local yards and scraping all the grass and weeds out. The appearance of the yards is helped much by the work.

Returns From Medford—

Lieutenant Ayres returned yesterday evening from Medford where he has been making flights for the past few days. He reports considerable enthusiasm in that city over flying and he took up about 50 passengers. He made the trip back with Mechanic White and when they got over Grants Pass they gave the citizens a treat by doing a number of stunts. If the weather clears enough he will leave in the morning for Portland to start a class in aviation for the Dudley school and will return here in about two weeks. He will bring a DeHavilland plane back to use in his flights here.
