PERSONAL AND LOCAL

 Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson, of Leland, are Grants Pass visitors today.

Soldiers Pass Through—A special train carrying five cars of soldiers of the 35th infantry, passed through here this morning on their way to San Francisco where they will embark for Honolulu. Besides the five cars of the men, there were four cars for the officers and ladies. The men were all happy and singing when they left here. Breakfast was just being served as the train pulled in. The men were from Camp Lewis.

Daily Courier Bargain Day—September 18, Saturday, is the annual Bargain Day for the Daily Courier, when yearly subscriptions are sold at a discount. On that day $5 pays for one year in advance.

McKinstry Boys Return—Thomas and Newell McKinstry have returned from their summer's work with the United States township survey in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, and are enrolled in the high school again. The boys are husky and brown, and say they thoroughly enjoyed their work, which was finishing upon township surveys in the three states.

Her Way.
 I was teaching school and as I had the primary room on the lower floor was considerably annoyed by the boys' way in which the high school pupils came downstairs. The teachers held a consultation and I was appointed to speak to the principal concerning the matter. As a result, I stopped him one day on the landing. Just when I had finished my speech I lost my balance and went rolling down the steps. When I arose the principal smilingly said "Is that the style you desire the students to use?"—Chicago Tribune
