A TOURIST CENTER

Grants Pass is fast becoming a center from which tourist travel will radiate in its viewing of the scenic wonders of southern Oregon and northern California. The hotels report that they now have upon their registers daily parties who are making this their headquarters while they see the Josephine caves, Crater lake, and others of the places worth while in this vicinity. Many others of the sightseers are traveling by auto and camping as they go, and this class has been filling the auto camp to capacity for weeks past. It is especially notable that many parties that pass through the city on the first leg of their trip, stop on the return and remain while they make these various side trips from here. They were impressed with the scenery on first sight, and the more they travel the more are they convinced that the climatic perfection and the scenic beauty of southern Oregon are unrivalled and unapproached.
The testimonial of the traveling public bears out the claim that the Rogue valley offers more to the seeker after pleasure in the out-of-doors than any other district in all

Auto Accidents Reported—

Two automobile accidents were reported over the week end. In one accident yesterday Miss Anna Nielson and Ernest Nielson were injured. The car they were driving went off the road on Savage creek and Miss Nielson suffered a sprained hand while Mr. Nielson received a dislocated ankle. The other accident happened Saturday night when a tourist was forced off the road by glaring headlights of a passing auto. The car, which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shields, of Weed, went off the highway at the culvert near Savage rapids. Mrs. Shields' leg was injured while they were getting her out of the wreck. None of the injuries were serious.

CHILD WHO CAUSED A WAR

British Girl Only Six Years of Age Was the Innocent Center of Trouble in Assam.

The discovery that Mary Winchester, who when only six years of age was the cause of the Lushais war, is still alive, has aroused the greatest interest.

She was abducted by the natives of northern Assam, and when the fighting was over it was found that the chiefs of the Lushais had almost defied her, and they pleaded with the British officers to be allowed to keep her to become the head of the tribe. Mary's father was a native of Elgin, and belonged to one of the leading county families in Morayshire. When the story of the Lushai outrage reached Elgin it caused great consternation, and the M. P. for Moray and Nairn raised the matter in the house of commons and took it further—even to Queen Victoria herself. So it came about that the punitive force was sent against the Lushais. On receipt of the news that Mary Winchester had been rescued and was alive and well Elgin gave itself up to a riot of rejoicing, and later still, on her arrival at her grandparents' home, the whole town made holiday to welcome her. Prior to traveling north Mary had the honor of being received by Queen Victoria. The little maid, despite the fact that she had changed her native dress for European attire, was then and for some considerable time afterward of a dark almond color wherever her skin had been exposed to the tropical sun of Assam.

Constituents of Manna.

The belief that it has discovered one of the constituents of the manna of the Bible is agitating the United States federal bureau of chemistry. It has found and secured several pounds of melezitose, a form of sugar extremely valuable in scientific experimentation, and hardly more plentiful than radium. Melezitose is the original honey dew. It gets its name from the French word melez, which means larch tree. It seems that bees and peculiar summer weather in central Pennsylvania recently conspired to lay up a lot of this unusual saccharine substance in numerous hives, where it crystallized and dealt death and destruction to many bees when they tried to live on it. It was found to have been too rich for their digestion and that they literally starved to death.

Man Leads in Endurance.

Man is a truly wonderful animal. Although the majority of the human race ruin their strength and constitutions by unwise eating and drinking, by lack of fresh air, and by unnecessary exposure to all sorts of infection, yet, even so, man can more than hold his own with the brute creation. Not, of course, in muscular strength. A tiger with one pat of his paw can reduce a human skull to pulp; a hare can run two yards to a man's one. It is in endurance that man beats the lower races. For a short distance a racehorse can gallop nearly 35 miles an hour, but in a 500-mile race a trained man will easily beat any horse that ever lived.

Remarkable Animal.

One of the strangest animals known is the platypus, a creature inhabiting the river banks of Australia and Tasmania. It resembles both an animal and a bird in that its body and tail are like those of a beaver, while its web feet and bill remind one of a duck. It has teeth for chewing its food, but it has no external ear, although its hearing is acute. It lays eggs like a turtle, but suckles its young. A specimen of the animal has been placed on exhibition in the National museum, Washington.
