OREGON WEATHER
Weather for the Week
Pacific Coast States. Generally fair, cool, frequent frosts probable in Washington and Oregon and probably extreme northern California.
Tonight, rain west portion. Cloudy east portion. Thursday rain.

It is not every political speaker who comes along that is qualified to speak as a student of political economy and also as one of the foremost platform orators of America. Monteville Flowers has won a nation-wide reputation as a Chautauqua lecturer and as an expert in matters having to do with the machinery of government. His address before the people of Josephine county at the Grants Pass opera house Saturday night will be a treat, one that voters of all political faiths should hear.

The republican state central committee has endorsed the candidacy of Geo. M. Brown for the place vacated on the supreme bench through the resignation of Justice Bennett. The committee asks that voters write in Mr. Brown's name, as the vacancy occurred too late for the name of the nominee to be printed upon the ballot.

They say that they are going to Asia to find the "missing link." Why go so far?

AMUSEMENTS

The old story of the "country maiden who, longing for the bright lights, journeys to a New York hall bedroom with high ambitions and a wicker suitcase, is tempted without success, and then returns, disillusioned, to the little rural village is given a brand new and uproariously funny twist—several of them, in fact—by vivacious Dorothy Gish in her latest screen farce, "Mary Ellen Comes to Town," which opened a two days' run at the Oregon theater tonight.

Miss Gish is chauffeur of a small town soda fountain at the start of the picture. If you know pictures, you are aware of the wonderful opportunities for side-splitting comedy this situation offers the little star. Later, in the city she becomes a cabaret singer and is used by her boss as the lure to attract a certain young man's pocket book. But she upsets the dope by falling in love with her victim.

This picture has rather more plot than the average Gish feature. But that doesn't matter. The star is her inimitable self and she could make a wooden Indian laugh himself off his pedestal.
