BELIEFS ABOUT BIRDS

Small birds preen themselves just before rain.

Birds singing during rain indicates fair weather.

A yellow canary brings good luck to the house.

If you find a bird's nest you will inherit something.

Blackbirds' notes are very shrill in advance of rain.

If a bird comes tapping at a closed window, it is a sign of news.

If you eat a bluebird's eggs you will be restless as long as you live.

To meet a flock of white birds is a sign of the coming of distant friends.

"If birds in the autumn grow tame. The winter will be too cold for game."

If a strange cat should kill your canary, it is a sign of ill luck for two years.

A dry summer will follow when birds build their nests in exposed places.

To find a bird's nest full of eggs in the autumn is very unusual and equally lucky.

The Romans believed that the sight of a hawk foretold victory to those going to war.

It is believed that handling any bird's egg in the nest will make the bird desert them.

If a blackbird builds its nest in the garden, there will soon be an engagement in the house.

The tale is told that the blackbird was once white, but during three days of a very severe winter it took refuge in a chimney.

How Twelfth Month Got Name.

Our Saxon ancestors, who made the early history of England and laid the foundation of our English language, called December Winter-monat or winter month. In the early times those Saxons were pagans, simply because they had never heard the truth. But the truth reached them and they became converted to Christianity. Then they gave to the twelfth month a new name significant of the national change of mind. They called the month Heigh-monat or holy month, from the anniversary that occurs in it, of the birth of Christ. In the end the Latin name prevailed and so we call the month December.—Montreal Herald.

AN ENEMY TO GOOD HEALTH

Good health has no greater enemy than constipation. You cannot "keep fit" for work or play if the bowels are irregular or clogged with a decomposed mass of undigested food, from which the blood picks up disease-causing impurities and carries them throughout the entire system. Foley Cathartic Tablets are mild but are in action. They banish biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach and other ills caused by indigestion. Take one tonight and you will feel better in the morning.

THE REAL HORSE LOVER

takes good care of the horse. The best feed only is good enough for the animal, whether it be saddle, carriage or work horse. And the best horse lovers know that we invariably supply the best feed obtainable. Are you a horse lover or just a horse owner?
