Mrs. E. F. Byington has been in the city for the past few weeks making preparations to move their furniture to Portland where they have located. Mrs. Byington also attended to the sale of the product of their Fruitdale vineyard. Although the crop was very light, Mrs. Byington states that the higher price made up for it, as much as $4.50 a crate being received.

F. W. Crockett, of Los Angeles, is in the city for a few days visiting friends. Mr. Crockett expects to catch a few of the Rogue steelheads before he returns to California, the fishing being one of the chief attractions for him here. He has just returned from a trip east.

Meeting Place Changed—

The meeting place for the Winona meeting of the Farm Bureau which was scheduled to be held in Winona hall will be held in the school house, in place of the former.

Dancing Class Starts—

Monday evening, Nov. 15. If you wish to join, please give your name to Mrs. Goettsche. 171f

Will Start Graveling—

The graveling of the grade on Hays Hill will commence tomorrow, according to H. W. Webber, who has the contract for the work. Engineer Davis, of the bureau of public roads arrived this morning and went to the hill with Mr. Webber to oversee the work done on the road.

Textile Exhibit at City Hall—

On account of lack of space in the Public Library, the textile exhibit already announced, will be held in the council room. It will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week from 2 until 5. The work, done by the Portland Arts and Craft Society, contains 60 original and interesting pieces in Batik, loom and needle work.

Meeting—

Armistice evening, November 11 at 7:30 o'clock at the Illinois Valley Methodist church. Purpose: Consolidation of schools, also discussion of better mail service for Illinois valley. Everybody come. 21

Large Congregations Hear Reid—

Large congregations greeted Evangelist Reid at the Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening. At the evening service the audience overflowed the large auditorium and filled the lecture room. The morning sermon was a profound discourse on "The Resurrection." In the evening the evangelist discussed the question "Shall We Know Our Loved Ones in Heaven?" Both sermons were instructive and inspiring.

Schools to Consolidate—

A meeting to discuss the matter of school consolidation, will be held at the Methodist church, November 11, Armistice day, in the Illinois Valley. It is planned to consolidate five small schools, building a modern school in a central location. This action will be a step in the direction of solving, to some extent, the shortage of teachers question.

Former Boy Killed—

A telegram was received here Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Sauer telling of the death of their son, Raymond Sauer in Hillyard, Wash. Mr. Sauer left Sunday evening for Hillyard and will bring back the body of his son for burial here. Miss Philippine Sauer, a sister, arrived last night from Eugene to be with her mother.

Funeral Services Tomorrow—

Funeral services for Kenneth P. Woodin, who died Saturday after falling from the roof of the reduction plant, will be held from the Bethany Presbyterian church, Tuesday, November 9, at 2:30. Interment will be at the Masonic cemetery. The casket will not be opened at the church but friends wishing to view the remains may do so at Hall's funeral parlors from 11 until 12 o'clock tomorrow morning.
