OREGON

Begins TOMORROW MATINEE Plays Thru TUESDAY

This play is a still greater triumph for the author who thrilled you with his "Back to God's Country"—another wonderful Northland story of love and romance in the Northwest Canadian forests. We are telling you now that there isn't one flaw in the entire picture.

Marshall Neilan presents The River's End by James Oliver Curwood

The story swings into quick action right from the start; keeps one guessing vainly as to what is coming next and never falters in its stride.

"The River's End" is going to pack this theatre just as "Back to God's Country" did. We earnestly advise attending Matinee Tomorrow, and as early in the day as possible.
