Two Routes Open

Two carrier routes on the Daily Courier are now open for boys with wheels. Extra pay for wet weather and bonuses for long service. Apply at once.

Rain Was Unexpected

The rain last night was wholly unexpected here although the weather prediction was for rain. More rain is prophesied for today and tomorrow. It is not known what effect the rain of last night and today will have on the river, which was dropping fast during the few cold days of the first of the week.

Theater Soon Ready

The new theater is beginning to take on the appearance of a real show-house now. The drops have been installed and some scenery has arrived. The curtain has been hung and a large part of the seats put down. Work on the heating plant and dressing room is now going ahead as well as the completion of the interior of the theater. It is expected that the opening will be about the middle of the present month.

Meeting Well Attended

The Farm Bureau meeting today at the courthouse is well attended by the members of the Josephine organization. The day is being taken up with discussions and election of officers. The bureau was to decide whether or not they would join the state federation and also as to the advisability of the state federation joining with the national Farm Bureau. A dinner was spread at noon by the ladies of the Farm Bureau.
