Chinese Warning to Counterfeiters. It was a rash man that made counterfeiting his trade in defiance of the grim warning printed on Chinese bank notes of the Ming dynasty. "Who makes a copy of this will have his head cut off." The most superficial student of Chinese history knows that the threat was not idle. Nowhere, except in Lewis Carroll's Wonderland, was the royal privilege of cutting off heads exercised so freely as at the court of Peking.—Youth's Companion

Reuben Miner Visits

D. W. Johnson, who was one of the early miners of the country, is spending the day in Grants Pass. Mr. Johnson opened the Gold Bug mine at Mount Reuben. He went to the Josephine hotel today to see Phil Metschan, thinking he was still with the hotel. He once saved Mr. Metschan's life when he carried him into a tunnel in Grant county during an Indian raid. That was around 1870, but he can still recall the old days of the west with remarkable clearness. He is well into the nineties but does not show it.

Snow on Mountain

The traffic between Grants Pass and Crescent City has been tied up for some time by the heavy snowfall on Oregon mountain which has made it impossible for automobiles to get across. The stages go to the foot of the mountain and the passengers go over the worst place on foot or horseback. The snow has reached a depth of about four feet on the mountain.

Christmas Mixed Candy

30c per pound at Horning's Shack.

Cars Are Derailed

Three cars on a southbound freight jumped the track at Hugo last night, holding up traffic for hours. The wrecker was called out from Ashland and early this morning had the track cleared. Two box cars and a gondola loaded with lumber were in the mishap. All were pretty badly dented, the gondola being jammed endwise into the bank. One box car was upturned and the third was lying on the upturned car. Train 15 did not arrive here until 4 o'clock this morning, being due in here at 9 last night.
