

THE MOST THOUGHTFUL

of Christmas presents is a bank account. It gives stability, and cultivates thrift and business habits. Start one now for the kiddies. They will appreciate it in after years as they will nothing else. We welcome accounts, large and small.

Here's some good Christmas news for the children of Grants Pass. A free kiddies Christmas matinee will be given at the Oregon theater, Saturday forenoon, December 25th. This free holiday treat is an annual event with George A. Hunt & Co. "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" has been obtained for this Christmas entertainment. 57

W. L. Montgomery came in from Taklima a few days ago on business. He states that there is plenty of snow in the mountains now to ensure placer miners a run until late in the season. In the hills a few miles from Taklima the snow lies at a depth of six feet and more.

Once upon a time a big moving picture producer decided to make a film of the children, by the children and for the children. The result is "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp," the magnificent fairy tale photoplay in which Wm. Fox features clever children, a wonder genie and palaces built in the twinkling of an eye. This is to be the free offering for the children of Grants Pass and Josephine county by George A. Hunt & Co., at the Oregon theater, Christmas morning. 57
