KATHERINE CALVERT AT THE ORGAN

Blame someone for it—quick! But you can't blame little Blanche Hawkins because there were twin beds in her new apartment. And you can't blame Signor Monti when he wandered winefully into the wrong flat.

You can't blame either of them for all the delirious doings before Blanche's husband and Monti's wife raved in on them. And no one will blame you if you have to be carried home on a plank after you've seen it.

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS SOLVED BY GIRLS

State College, Pa., Dec. 24.—Senior co-eds at the Pennsylvania State College have demonstrated their ability to combat the high cost of living by running their table on less than 50 cents a day per person.

A group of seven girls in home economics, in their first of eight weeks' residence in the housekeeping practice house maintained for their benefit on the campus, established a record of 43.6 cents a day. They set the limit at 50 cents, which is less than half of what the men students pay for board in the town.

The girls manage a ten room house during their residence as a part of their training. Posted schedules give each her duty for the day. Records of this kind may give a partial answer to the question of why there are frequent marriages around the commencement period each year.

Following is a sample menu for a day: Breakfast—Steamed pears, hot cakes and syrup, coffee. Lunch—Soup, tomato salad, bread and butter, jelly jumbles and tea. Dinner—Lamb chops with gravy, mashed potatoes, chard salad, creamed carrots and pumpkin pie.

Notice to Juniors of Security—

Monday, Dec. 27, at 3 p. m., every Junior in Grants Pass is to attend initiation in the S. B. A. Hall. Twenty certificates will be taken up by the new members. Arrangements will be made for the New Years eve tree, and a program will be given for the members of S. B. A. and their families.

VETO EXPECTED TO BE GIVEN ON WAR FINANCE MEASURE

Washington, Dec. 24.—(A. P.)—The veto of the joint resolution reviving the war finance corporation was expected by White House officials, but in giving expression to the belief they made it clear that they had no specific information from the president.

STANARD WRITES FOR MANY PUBLICATIONS

The writer of the Courier's daily poem, Everett Earle Stanard, has been engaged upon considerable literary work while in Grants Pass, and has recently completed an article entitled "Memories of Oregon Poets" which will appear in the Overland Monthly, published in San Francisco. This article is based upon interviews with W. W. Fidler of this city concerning poets with whom he was acquainted, notably Samuel Simpson and Joaquin Miller.

Mr. Stanard's poems appear frequently in the Portland Oregonian and Journal, and in the Portland Spectator. He has also appeared in the "Light Verse" page in Munsey's Magazine. The popular Top Notch Magazine has used his poems for a number of years. Normal Instructor will use soon an article from Mr. Stanard's pen entitled "American Historical Poetry." An article entitled "Training Your Dog" will appear in a twenty-volume set of books which the American Educational Society of St. Louis is getting out, the set to be known as "The Father and Son Library."

Returns to Glendale—

Mrs. Albert Blackford returned last Thursday evening from Grants Pass, where she has been very seriously ill in the hospital. She is now at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. F. Hayes, and at latest inquiries her condition is reported as slightly improved.—Glendale News.

Pupils Sell Stamps—

The pupils of the city schools sold a large number of Red Cross stamps during the last two weeks of school when every boy and girl was given a chance to dispose of them. A total of $196 was secured in the three grade schools. Junion high sold $62 worth of the stamps. East school sold $80 worth, while Riverside school disposed of stamps to the amount of $48.

SINCERE GOOD WISHES FOR THE CHRISTMAS SEASON AND THE NEW YEAR IN BE-HALF OF ITS ENTIRE ORGANIZATION

Geo. A. Hunt & Co. Theatres

Harry L. Cort and George E. Stoddard evolved the book and lyrics, which Harold Orlob finished and furnished with his tickly, tricky tunes, and "Lester" has entrenched itself with lovers of good, clean, musical comedy and capacity houses everywhere has been the rule for both the east and west have set their mark of decided approval upon it and claimed it as their own. The offering is entertaining every minute of the time, and it affords ample opportunity for the display of the personally distinctive talents of the best, which includes such funmakers as Fred Helder, June Roberts, Earl Higley, Frances Donegan, Rene Brown, Betty Kirkbride, Claire Grenville, Evelyn Paul, The Four Entertainers and a stunning chorus.

LOUIS B. MAYER PRESENTS ANITA STEWART IN "THE YELLOW TYPHOON" BY HAROLD MAC GRATH.

"YELLOW" because of her hair; "TYPHOON" because of the human wreckate she left in her wake. "THE YELLOW TYPHOON," they called her after the manner of the Orient, where she was notorious for her vampish escapades. With a kitten's purr but a tiger's heart her carnival of reprisals against the male sex was carried to a whirlwind conclusion.
