BRITISH ENTERTAIN
AMERICAN STUDENTS

London, Dec. 28.—(A. P.)—American students in England are enjoying Christmas season hospitality at the homes of notable English personages, as well as of American residents in England. Scores of Rhodes scholars have laid aside their caps and gowns and have departed from their Oxford colleges to be guests at English and American homes in England during the Christmas "vac." as the two-weeks' vacation period is termed in English scholastic slang.

English home life is the chief glory of the land, according to Englishmen and, as a result of the desire of those interested in American students here, opportunity has been given to many young Americans to experience their life at its best, the Christmas season. Many other students are guests at American homes here.

Prominent American and British women, members of the women's advisory committee of the American University Union in England, arranged for the entertainment of students during the Christmas season, students having been invited to teas, evenings, week-ends or the entire vacation period.

Will Be Tough on Painters.

It is believed by the Moslems that at the judgment day painters will be required to provide with souls all representations of human beings which they have made. Falling in this ordeal, they will lose their own soul as a forfeit for their presumptuous imitation of the work of the Creator.

Inconsistency.

Uncle Bill Bottletop says he knows a man who will fool with any old kind of liquor, who refused to eat mushrooms for fear a little toadstool might get mixed in.

Collins Auto Company, Grants Pass, Oregon:

Gentlemen:—You will notice in this month's Truck Talks No. 86 that the Texas Oil Company purchased through Mr. Griffin, 77 Mack Trucks of the following capacities:

58 2-ton "AB's"
15 3½-ton "AC's"
4 5½-ton "AC's"

It is interesting to know that after several years of experimenting with and testing trucks of all makes, practically every Division Manager of the Texas Oil Company was in favor of this order being placed with the International Motor Company.

Yours very truly,

ALFONSO WELL LIKED
BY ENGLISH PEOPLE

London, Dec. 28.—(A. P.)—King Alfonso of Spain and his queen, formerly Princess Ena of Battenberg, England, were the objects of much attention and popular favor during their two weeks' stay in London, just ended.

Alfonso's beaming smile became as famous as his big blue car, and his consort's magnificent gowns and furs were the envy of crowds of women who daily besieged the hotel on Piccadilly where the royal couple stayed.

Their second son, Prince Jaime, is remaining in England for a time to continue a treatment for his ear trouble which is understood to be well on the way to a permanent cure.

Besides being very largely entertained by their cousins of England, the Spanish royalties attended a great many private society functions, which both appeared to enjoy. Alfonso took care to take a few private dancing lessons to keep up with the latest steps.

Their purchases made here are said to be enormous. Alfonso bought two automobiles and the queen four hunters, besides a great quantity of toys and miscellaneous articles for the royal nursery in Madrid.

The Spanish king is very anxious to bring the English polo teams that will meet America next summer to Madrid for practice this winter. It may be recalled that Lord Wimborne's team spent some time in Spain before going to America in 1914 for the Cup matches.

WHY HOGS LIKE TO WALLOW

Animal So Constructed That He Does Not Perspire and Must Cool His Body in Water.

The hog is so constructed that he does not sweat, or perspire, but must cool his body either in the shade in moderate weather or in water during high temperatures; so, just as it is natural for the duck to swim, the hen to scratch, or the mule to kick, so it is for the hog to wallow.

HEAVY SILAGE RATION BEST

Enables Baby Beef Feeder to Get Young Animals Up to Full Feed in Short Period.

The heavy silage ration for baby beef the first part of the feeding period enables the feeder, when grain is added, to get the calves up to a full feed in a shorter period of time than when grain is fed from the beginning.

Ideal Married State.

Nothing much that is wrong can happen to the man who thinks he has married the prettiest girl in the world, so long as he keeps on thinking so.
