WANTED ALL TO UNDERSTAND

Cicerone at Holy Sepulchre at Jerusalem Careful to Impress Gospel Facts on Visitors.

Either I was particularly fortunate or others are particularly fastidious. The guide who showed me the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem was not particularly noisy or profane or palpably mercenary; he was rather more or less sympathetic than the same sort of man who might have shown me Westminster abbey or Stratford-on-Avon.

He was a small, solemn, owlish old man, so far from deserving the charge of not knowing the Bible, he deserved rather a gentle remonstrance against his assumption that nobody else knew it. If there was anything to smile at, in associations so sacred, it was the elaborate simplicity with which he told the first facts of the Gospel story, as if he were evangelizing a savage. Anyhow, he did not talk like a cheap-jack at a stall, but rather like a teacher in an infant school.

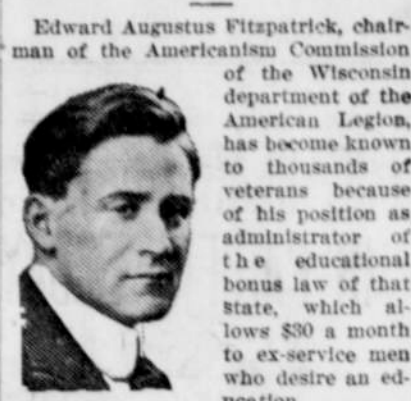

He made it very clear that Jesus Christ was crucified, in case anyone should suppose he was beheaded; and often stopped in his narrative to repeat that the hero of these events was Jesus Christ, lest we should fancy it was Nebuchadnezzar or the duke of Wellington. I do not in the least mind being amused at this, but I have no reason whatever for doubting that he may have been a better man than I. I gave him what I should have given a similar guide in my own country; I parted with him as politely as from one of my own countrymen.—From the New Jerusalem by G. K. Chesterton.

FITZPATRICK IS BUSY MAN

Chairman of Americanism Commission of Wisconsin is Administrator of Educational Bonus Law.

Edward Augustus Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Americanism Commission of the Wisconsin department of the American Legion, has become known to thousands of veterans because of his position as administrator of the educational bonus law of that state, which allows $30 a month to ex-service men who desire an education.

Although he is only thirty-seven years old, Mr. Fitzpatrick has had exceptional experience in the field of educational administration. He is a graduate of the New York City training school for teachers and received three degrees from Columbia university. Following his university study, Mr. Fitzpatrick was a teacher in New York public and high schools and later became connected with the New York training school for public service. Mr. Fitzpatrick was assigned to the Wisconsin board of public affairs for educational investigations and afterwards became executive secretary of the commission of practical training for public service and a director of the society for promotion of training for public service.

During the war, Mr. Fitzpatrick served as a major of infantry and was in charge of draft administration in Wisconsin. Since January 1919, he has been secretary of the Wisconsin state board of education. He is the author of a number of books and articles on educational problems.

A member of the Madison, Wis., Post of the Legion, Mr. Fitzpatrick, has served as chairman of various state committees and is now chairman of the state publicity committee, in addition to his duties in the field of Americanism.

M'ALLISTER ROSE TO MAJOR

Arkansas Officer's Unit Made Record for Number of Men Discharged in One Day.

Heber L. McAllister of Conway, Ark., chairman of the Americanism committee of the Arkansas department of the American Legion, endeared himself to many ex-dough boys when his unit at Camp Dix, N. Y., discharged more men in one day than any other unit in the army. The score which he commanded as a major, was 1,536 discharges in one day.

A member of the Arkansas National Guard, Mr. McAllister entered the federal service early in the war and served in America and France. He rose from second lieutenant to major. Mr. McAllister was educated in the common and high schools of Mississippi and was graduated from Mississippi college. He was an assistant in mathematics at his alma mater for one year and then became a member of the faculty of Ouachita college. He was acting president of the latter institution when he resigned to enter the service. Mr. McAllister is now director of extension at Arkansas State Normal school.

SEARCH FOR BERGDOLL'S AID

Legion is Endeavoring to Find Man Alleged to Have Helped Slacker Reach Germany.

The American Legion is searching for the man who is reported to have aided Grover C. Bergdoll, notorious slacker, in his escape from Canada to Germany, according to Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion, who said that the Legion is especially concerned in that Bergdoll is alleged to have obtained his passport in Winnipeg by using an American Legion button and the army discharge papers of a Legionnaire.

Mr. Bolles has appealed to the Department of Justice to ascertain the facts in the case and proposes, if the report is true, to see that the man is apprehended, expelled from the Legion and brought to a speedy trial.

Bergdoll has been the target of numerous attacks of the American Legion. When he "escaped" from prison a reward of $500 was offered for his capture and a number of Legion posts in many parts of the country took similar action to bring about his capture. One post adopted resolutions urging the President to demand the release of the two Americans who tried to recover Bergdoll in Germany.

Familiarity's Breed.

At the grave of the departed the old darkey pastor stood, hat in hand. Looking into the abyss he delivered himself of the funeral oration.

LEGION MEN IN HOSPITALS

One-Third Ex-Service Boys in Institutions Are Members of the Great Organization.

One-third of the ex-service men who are confined in hospitals in thirty-two states are members of the American Legion, according to Gerald J. Murphy, director of the Legion's service division, who bases his report on figures compiled in a national census of disabled men taken by the Legion.

"With one-third of the disabled veterans enrolled in the Legion, against one-fifth of the other eligible ex-service men, it is shown that the disabled man realizes the results the Legion has obtained in its campaign for justice for the sick and wounded of the World War," Mr. Murphy declared. "The disabled man has not joined the Legion for the selfish purpose of obtaining his own compensation, for the Legion service is extended to veterans, regardless of Legion membership.

"Although the principal effort of the Legion is to aid the sick and wounded veteran, national and state legislation, Americanism work and many other projects beneficial to all ex-service men are being accomplished by the organization. These movements are expected to result in a greater percentage of Legion members among those who left the service without physical handicaps."

TO HOLD PRO-GERMAN MEETS

Sessions Alleged for Purpose of Protesting Against Negro Troops in French Army of Occupation.

Pro-German meetings planned for the near future in a number of cities in the East and Middle West will be closely watched by the American Legion, according to national headquarters of the ex-service men's organization. The series of meetings, it is understood, will be held for the purpose of protesting against the reported presence of negro colonial troops in the French army of occupation, despite the fact that the troops in question were withdrawn many months ago.

Cities in which the meetings are scheduled are Milwaukee, Omaha, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, Cleveland and New York. It is understood that Dr. Edmund von Mach, who was rebuffed at Washington, D. C., in an effort to enlist the aid of F. W. Galbreath, Jr., Legion national commander, in the project, and George Sylvester Vlietick, notorious Boche magazine editor, are among the hyphenated Americans who are sponsoring the movement.

A bulletin from Legion national headquarters, warning state headquarters to watch for an attempt to revive German propaganda and to create sentiment in America hostile to the allies, has been sent out, and steps have been taken by national officials to influence the Department of Justice to prohibit the meetings.

"A recurrence of German propaganda activity in this country is something the Legion has been watching for for some time," said Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion. "I feel that the greatest check to a movement of this kind will come from citizens of Teutonic extraction, of whose loyalty and sincerity there can be no doubt. Loyal Americans should know of the sinister efforts to turn sentiment in favor of the nation with which technically we are still at war."

NAVY HEAD SENDS GREETINGS

Josephus Daniels, Retiring Secretary, Expresses Appreciation for Part in World War.

A message of greeting and appreciation to the members of the American Legion was written by Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, just previous to his retirement from office. The message follows:

"Upon my retirement as the directing head of the navy, which place I was privileged to hold during the World War, I wish to send a word of greeting and appreciation to all who belong to the American Legion and all who served their country in the army and navy during those crucial days. It was a privilege I shall regard as the most sacred in my life to have been their comrade in those great days. They truly saved the civilization of the world by their spirit and their valor. In the days that are to come the world depends upon them for saving it from the perils of peace. I have profound faith that they will not be wanting in the new call upon them for the same courage and wisdom in peace which they manifested in war.

LEGION HIKERS ARE GREETED

Two California Ex-service Men Report Cordial Treatment by Posts of the Southwest.

The hospitality of the Southwest is reflected in its American Legion posts, according to Van W. Bishop and C. G. Allison, California Legionnaires who are well on their way on a little walk from Los Angeles, Cal., to Mexico City, Mexico, a distance of more than 1,500 miles. Bishop belongs to Los Angeles Post No. 8, and Allison to Irwin Post No. 93 of San Francisco.

Wary with tramping the dusty kilometers and burdened with packs and other impedimenta, the marchers found rest at a number of Legion posts along the way, according to a letter received from them by the adjutant of the Los Angeles post.

"The posts of the American Legion in the towns where we have stopped have treated us royally. Legion members at Yuma, Ariz., started the good things for us. Then Tucson post fixed us up for two days in a room fitted with bunks for the accommodation of a few fellows who come in and want a place to stay.

"Our next stop was at Bisbee for three days. They have a regular home with several rooms and a sleeping porch. A number of the fellows make their home at the club. We arrived in time to attend the funeral of one of the boys brought back from 'over there.' Now, we are at Douglas, where Legion post officers obtained quarters for us. Our plan is to enter Mexico at El Paso or Laredo, Tex."

The musical comedy, "Sittin' Pretty" is one of the feature plays now offered to posts. It tells the story of a dough-boy who poses as a girl welfare worker in France, saves a party of A. W. O. L. soldiers from court martial, chaperones two charming daughters of a French nobleman, and saves the boys from drowning in the River Cognac. The address of the bureau is A. E. F. Library, 65 West Fortieth street, New York City.
