WORLD'S RECORD FOR RUN HELD BY "SINBAD"

The world's record for the continuous run of one attraction in New York is held by Mr. Al Jolson in "Sinbad," who played there in this production for two years at four different theaters. "Sinbad" is the 23d spectacular extravaganza to be produced at the Winter Garden, and not only does it outshine any of its predecessors but the receipts overtop anything ever known at the Winter Garden. It is indeed a shimmering upheaval of oriental opulence, as gorgeous as a seraph's dream, and as magnificent as the midnight sun. In this incomparable extravaganza there are fourteen glittering, gorgeous scenes, through which the inimitable Jolson frisks and frolics, capers and carols, producing gales upon gales of laughter. During the nine years that Al Jolson has been the star of the Winter Garden, he has never before had such an ample budget of corking songs and in the singing of a comic song Al Jolson leaves all others far behind. In "Sinbad" he impersonates Inbad, the Porter, which gives him ample opportunity for the display of all his extraordinary powers. With such an entertainment backed by a company of 150 people, it is little wonder that the huge Winter Garden was packed to its utmost capacity at each New York performance.

At Page theater, Medford, May 25.

Nine Million Cars Registered.

A total of 9,211,295 motor cars, including commercial vehicles, were registered last year in the 48 states and District of Columbia, according to figures compiled by the bureau of public roads of the Department of Agriculture. There were also registered a total of 238,146 motorcycles.

Preferred Death to Blindness; Got Wish

Discussing his falling sight with some friends, Elmore Dennis, 94 years old, of Jackson, Mich., said he hoped he did not live until he was blind. A short time later he stepped into an elevator shaft and fell to his death.
