HELD WITHOUT BAIL CONNECTION WITH THE DEATH OF VIRGINIA RAPPE

GIRL'S FINANCEE WILL AVENGE

Friend of Actress Signs Complaint—"Fatty" Photographed for the "Rogue's Gallery"

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Booked on a murder charge, Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, is held in jail without bail in connection with the death Friday of Virginia Rappe, film actress, who died, said District Attorney Brady and other authorities, of injuries inflicted by Arbuckle during a party in Arbuckle's suite in a local hotel.

The case is scheduled before the grand jury tonight. The coroner's inquest was held Thursday. Twenty-two witnesses are being guarded by detectives.

Los Angeles, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—A picture house last night cancelled an engagement of the latest Arbuckle film.

Medford, Mass., Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Mayor Haynes notified picture houses that Arbuckle films were barred until Arbuckle's case had been disposed of in the courts.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—A formal complaint charging murder was sworn to before Police Judge O'Brien against Roscoe Arbuckle in connection with the death of Miss Rappe. The complaint was signed by Mrs. Babinia Maude Delmont, a friend of the dead actress.

Arbuckle's appearance in the police court was delayed until Bertillon measurements could be taken and he be photographed for the rogue's gallery.

New York, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Henry Lehrman, film director, who was engaged to marry Virginia Rappe, said he would devote every moment he could spare to pressing Arbuckle's prosecution.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—The board of censors has barred Arbuckle's films until he clears himself.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Arbuckle appeared in the court for arraignment amid a battery of flashlights. The case is to be continued until Friday at the request of the district attorney.

The inquest will begin today instead of Thursday, the coroner announced.

ROBBERY CAUSE OF MURDER BY MILL EMPLOYEE

ONE ESCAPES ATTEMPT AT DOUBLE MURDER FOR MONEY

THE DALLES SCENE OF KILLING

James Doran, of McMinnville, Killed and William A. Ducharme Is Wounded by Assailant

The Dalles, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Robbery on a small scale was the purpose for an attempted double murder near here in which James Doran, of McMinnville, was shot and killed, and William A. Ducharme was severely wounded, it is alleged by Abe Evans. All three of the men were employed in the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company at Bend.

According to Ducharme's story, he and Doran had been working in the lumber camp and had been paid off Friday. They met Evans, who agreed to take them to McMinnville in his car if they paid all expenses. They met Evans, who agreed to take them to McMinnville in his car if they paid all expenses. The three men left Bend Saturday morning.

At The Dalles Evans suggested that the party spend the night in the house of a friend, living, he said, a short distance out of the city. Two miles west he stopped the car, explaining that his friend's house was but a short distance off the road at that point.

"We had both alighted from the car when I heard a shot," Ducharme said, in telling of the shooting. "I turned and saw Doran with his hands in the air; he seemed to be falling backward. I saw a flash and felt my

RIVER BANKS WINS 21 RIBBONS

Berkshire Herd Takes Eight—Guernseys Win Thirteen Prizes

With the return of Manager Clyde E. Niles from Sacramento with his pockets full of ribbons won at the California State Fair the triumph of the Josephine county livestock exhibits at Sacramento was completed. The hottest of competition was encountered by the River Banks Farms exhibits, there being 82 animals shown in the Berkshire classes and 74 in the Guernsey classes. Three hog judges of national reputation, who were present at the fair pronounced the Berkshire exhibit the best that has ever been shown in the United States. The River Banks herd won three second prizes, one third, one fourth, and three fifths, making a total of eight prizes won on the sixteen head shown.

In the Guernsey classes the senior yearling heifer, Imported River Banks Valentine, and the junior bull calf, River Banks Bonny Jay, were the sensations of the show and were conceded by all the California breeders to be superior to any of the California animals shown in their classes. The River Banks aged cow, Red Lady of Sunnyside Farm, won second place defeating Princess of Meadow Brook, the cow that was grandchampion at the California state fair in 1919 and 1920. Red Lady of Sunnyside Farm also won second prize in the class for advanced registry cows, scoring 90 out of a possible 100 points.

The prizes won by River Banks Guernsey herd were, one first, four seconds, four thirds, one fourth and three fifths, making a total of 13 prizes won by the ten head shown.

BIG WORK READY FOR U. S. SENATE

Ratification of Peace Treaty Expected to Take Many Week's of Effort

By H. K. Reynolds
Washington, Sept. 12.—(L. N. S.)—Multitudinous tasks, including revision of the tariff and internal revenue laws, the ratification of the German peace treaty and scores of lesser important bills of legislative business will confront the senate when it convenes again late in September to complete the work undertaken during the extraordinary session of congress called by President Harding in April.

Many weary weeks will pass while the senate argues over the ratification of the peace treaties with Germany and Austria, and it is generally admitted that these two documents will not receive senatorial approval during the extraordinary session, though it is probable that there will be some discussion of them.

UNITED STATES TARIFF ON COPRA TO KILL INDUSTRY

Papeete, Tahiti, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Trading interests of Tahiti are alarmed at the tariff on copra embodied in the new tariff bill being considered by the United States congress. At the present time copra in the islands is below cost of production. Many owners of plantations are feeding coconuts to pigs and cattle rather than pay labor to turn it into copra.

WOULD-BE HUSBANDS BUNCOED

East-European Women Gain Passage by Promise of Immediate Marriage

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Thousands of American young men are being buncoed out of money for passage and expenses by young women of southern and southeastern Europe under promise of marriage which they have no intention of keeping, according to Mrs. Suzanne Gomez, secretary of the Travelers' Aid Society.

She said the cases were rapidly increasing in number, and she would confer with the immigration authorities in an effort to have the practice stopped by deporting women engaging in it.

NEW YORK HARBOR FIRE HAZARD

Shipping Interests Heed Warnings of Oil in Big Port

New York, Sept. 12.—(A. P.)—Shipping interests have heeded persistent warnings that unless something is done to stop the pollution of New York harbor by oil waste from steamers the greatest port in the world will be menaced by danger of a great conflagration. They have formed a committee to see that the harbor is cleaned of this peril.

Great pools have collected in many of the harbor basins, and wooden piers have become soaked with the oil. Underwriters and firemen Lore remark that water would be of little good in fighting such a fire, as it would make the burning oil spread farther.
