ORDER DOKIES TO GRANTS PASS

Southern Oregon and Northern California Will Come

Knights of Pythias of Southern Oregon and Northern California who are numbered among the D. O. K. K. order are receiving novel invitations from the Fuhat Burkan temple headquarters at Medford summoning them to Grants Pass for the big ceremonial next Tuesday. The following is from the official command:

"Again our faithful emissaries have returned in great haste, bearing news of the discovery of a wondrous land adjacent to our Royal Domain, where dwells a contented and unsophisticated race who have attained great opulence and power, and who have hitherto not tasted of the magic waters of Zem Zem's sparkling spring, but have been content to forever live in luxurious ease and contentment. 'Tis said 'It's the Climate' that has thus created in this people such contentment and peaceful repose. It may be so, but we must be shown!"

"Therefore, Harken! At the hour of 12:30, after the midday repast, on December 27, 1921, the entire caravan will take up its way through the narrow defiles of the lower Valley of the Rogue and proceed to this Oasis of such renown, reported to be known as the Oasis of Grants Pass, Desert of Oregon, and there bask in the perpetual sunshine said to there exist. Much pleasure will be ours! The Tigers will be fed, and all will make merry!"

Committees having the affair in charge are as follows:
Applications—Ben M. Collins, W. T. Miller, Chas. R. Cooley and Medford Brigands.
Decorations—Harry Clapp, Stanley Clark and Henry Haswell.
Parade stunts—Fred Collins and Henry Haswell.
Banquet—Chas. H. Ernst.
Publicity—Wilford Allen.
Transportation—Carl Fichtner and Jack Wakefield.

All Done.

St. Nicholas, the Holy Man of the Fourth Century

IN THE entire category of the saints none continues to enjoy a more extended popularity than St. Nicholas, archbishop of Myra. At this time, when preparations are being made for the celebration of the birthday of the Christ-child, it is particularly fitting that we recall something of the character of this holy man of the fourth century and remember some of the legends which bring him so close to us at Christmas time.

Strange to say, while St. Nicholas is regarded as the special guardian of children, virgins and sailors, he came to be regarded as the patron saint of robbers, from an alleged adventure with thieves, whom he compelled to restore some stolen goods to their proper owners.

In various parts of the old world it is customary for the elder members of the family to place little presents in the shoes as well as the stockings of the younger relatives on the eve of St. Nicholas' day. In convents the young women used to place silk stockings at the door of the apartment of the abbess, with a paper recommending them to "Great St. Nicholas of her chamber."

While the emblem of the three golden balls is derived from the Lombard merchants, yet St. Nicholas is frequently pictorially represented as bearing three golden balls or purses, the origin of which can be traced to an act of the saint which has come down to us in the form of an ecclesiastical notation.

DECEMBER ACROSTIC

IF THE following words are arranged in order, one under the other, their initials will spell the name of something relating to Christmas. As a further help, we will say that each word has three letters:
1. A small insect.
2. Word used in speaking of ocean tide.
3. More than one.
4. Word used in asking questions.
5. Adjective meaning not rigid.
6. A small part of the body.
7. Head covering.
8. Verb to be mistaken.
9. Month of the year.—Successful Farming.

Just a merry, happy Christmas
For those you love and you;
May every wish that you may wish
For you and them come true.
