* C. C. Fultz has returned from Spokane where he has been spending several months. He reports eastern Washington pretty well frozen up with two feet of snow on the ground. The day he left the mercury had dropped to 20 degrees below zero. He says that Southern Oregon looks mighty good to him as he saw the sun today for the first time in quite a while.

W. C. T. U.—
Will hold a social meeting in the M. E. church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30. All members are requested to be present and bring a friend. A very interesting program has been planned. Light refreshments will be served by the committee. 62

Swine Breeders Meet—
The swine breeders of the Illinois valley met Wednesday at the farm of Mike Urban where H. A. Lindgren, livestock field man for O. A. C., gave them a talk on possibilities of hog raising. Considerable interest is being manifested in the swine industry, as shortage of feed is cutting down the raising of beef cattle in that section of the county. It is estimated that 1500 head of cattle have been sold off this year. Attention is turning to the dairying industry, swine being one of the principal by-products of the dairy ranch. Mr. Lindgren is meeting other hog raisers in various parts of the county today.

Attend the Sale—
Candy and cooked foods Saturday morning by the W. R. C. This is the first of several sales to be held in the interests of the State G. A. R. and W. R. C., convention to be held here next June. 63

Has Winter Garden—
People of the city who were lucky enough to have planted a winter garden this fall, are now having all the fresh vegetables they desire, due to the mild weather so far. L. A. Robertson was Wednesday exhibiting radishes, lettuce and other garden truck which he is growing at his home at 206 West G street. Irrigation made possible early fall planting.
