Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fetters arrived in the city this afternoon from Wolf Creek, and will visit for a few days with their daughter, Mrs. F. Laitue. 19

Mrs. P. E. Knowles left this afternoon, returning to her home in San Francisco. Mrs. Knowles has been the guest of Mrs. E. J. Schumacher of this city for the past three weeks, and visited also at the W. B. Lindsay home at Merlin. 19

E. R. Mann, who was injured in an explosion while working on the Prospect road last fall, has been called to Salem for examination for compensation by the state industrial accident commission. 21

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Eansan are stopping in the city from Portland, expecting to make this valley a several days' visit. They said they could scarcely believe their good fortune in getting into such perfect spring weather when the northern part of the state is gripped by blizzards. 21

Intersection Markers Placed— Intersection markers have been placed along Sixth street so that all drivers of vehicles will know where the center of the intersection is when they turn. The markers are of iron and will give the motorist who happens to hit one quite a jolt. They are said to be especially effective in causing blowouts if struck just right. 21

College Club Meets— The College club will meet on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Stearns, at Fifth street and Evelyn avenue. 21

Many Quail in Valley— There are more quail in the valley this winter than have ever been seen before, according to Game Warden Hancock. He states that the quail are very much in evidence in every part of the county. It is believed that the farmers are recognizing the value of the birds in eating weed seeds and insect pests and are helping to protect them. 21

Buy "Mococo" Superphosphate— The best on the market. We have just received a car for late orders. Phone J19. Oregon Cement Sewer Pipe and Tile Co. 22

Lamar Tooze Here— Lamar Tooze, field secretary for the ten million dollar endowment campaign for the University of Oregon, arrived this morning from Eugene and has been spending the day meeting the people of the city. This afternoon Mr. Tooze gave a talk to the students of the high school on the value and need of a higher education. Tonight he speaks to the Oregon alumni at an informal dinner at the Oxford hotel. At the meeting tonight every alumnus and former student of the university is expected to be present. The dinner will commence at 6:15.

Another Old Newspaper— After reading the news item in Tuesday's Courier, mentioning an old newspaper dated 1770, K. M. Ladewig brought to the Courier office this morning a copy of the Elletts County Gazette, published in January, 1890. The first page of this paper is devoted to the doings of congress. The second and third pages give an account of the funeral of George Washington, together with letters of condolence from prominent statesmen of that day. The fourth page contained advertising matter, principally of a legal nature. This paper is an original copy and has been in the Ladewig family for several generations. 19
