Big Excitement Promised—

Tonight bids fair to be one of big excitement among baseball fans, as the "almost" invincible teams of both the Standard Oil and Merchant aggregations mix on the diamond. The Standard Oil men have greased their mits thoroughly with Zorolene, and say they intend to take the merchants to a cleaning. The merchants have their mits stuck up with Karo, with the exception of Pat Cornell who has used shellac. The merchants claim the S. O. men are up against defeat. Neither team has lost so far in the schedule of games, and the struggle tonight is sure to be hard and fast. The game will be played at the fair grounds diamond at 6 o'clock.

Odd Fellows and Rockhops—

There will be no picnic in the park Sunday. 65
