Fishing Prospects Good—
Fishing prospects for tomorrow are good, according to today's weekend forecast by Joe Wharton. Joe states that both spinners and flies are being used to good advantage now and that anglers, able to get into the good riffles, would have little difficulty in getting fish. The best riffles are so well patronized that little room is left for late comers. Good catches are now being made of both trout and steelheads.

Stockholders to Meet—
The stockholders of the Josephine Racing Association will meet Monday night in the G. A. R. rooms at the court house to hold an important business meeting. The meeting, which starts at 8 o'clock, will be given over to the election of officers and discussions of matters dealing with the track which has just been completed. All stockholders should be present or should be represented by proxies. Anyone interested in the meeting is invited to be present.

Don't Forget—
"Thanksgiving Ann" at Epworth Hall 8 o'clock tonight 10c and 15c.

Party Got Steelheads—
The party from New York, composed of the Bliss and Cochrane families who arrived in their special car yesterday morning, spent the day fishing on the Rogue. Although they failed to hook any of the big fellows they were given the opportunity of fighting two of the big fellows which were hooked for them by Bruce Olding, who showed them where to go. Al Martineau, of the Josephine, also helped to entertain the visitors and to entice them over the Rogue fishing. The party left this morning for Crescent City and will proceed down the coast, again getting on their private car at Sacramento.

Almeda People Picnic—
Former residents of Almeda gathered at Riverside park Friday evening for a picnic. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Williams and family, formerly residents of Almeda but now of Seattle. Thirty-seven people were present to enjoy the bountiful picnic banquet, afterwards listening to the band concert.
