Dan Watson, Gaston Domergue and F. R. Davis were among the Medford people who attended the Josephine county fair yesterday.

Myrtle Wheeler has returned from Oakland, Cal., where she has been spending the past three months visiting with her sister, Mrs. William Watson.

A. K. Earhardt, of Rogue River, was in the city today on business. While here he called at the water master's office to make his final report on a water right.

J. J. Skinner and H. F. Buchter, of the California Oregon Power company, returned to Medford last night after several days in this vicinity.

S. L. Grimmer is spending several days in the city from Rogue River where he has been working in the woods. A log rolled on him recently and he suffered a badly sprained wrist which has kept him from his work for several days. He expects to spend the winter on Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mae Plumb, of Portland, have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Baker. They left this morning for the north. Another guest at the Baker home was Esther Mae Plumb, of Chicago, a step-sister of Mr. Baker, who left this morning for Hawaii, China and other eastern points to spend the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams are in Grants Pass for a week visiting with relatives and friends. They have just arrived from Long Beach where they are now making their home, having been there since last November. They will go from here to Portland and Seaside for several weeks and will spend another week here on their return to the south. Mr. Williams states that he is getting interested in the oil business having purchased some oil land which gives promise of production.
