OREGON WEATHER

Pacific Coast States: Generally fair in southern and central California, and occasional showers elsewhere. Temperature near normal.

Fair, tonight and Tuesday.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Mrs. A. C. Ford, of Ferrydale, spent the day shopping in the city.
Mrs. Allen Brown and two children, of Glendale, are spending several days in Grants Pass visiting at the S. J. Taylor home.

Mrs. Al J. Martineau and daughter, Dorris, returned Saturday from Portland, where they spent more than a week. They made the trip by auto.

F. G. Lewis, travelling agent for the Southern Pacific, in company with R. C. Barclay, travelling auditor, visited in Grants Pass today.
Both state that the railroad is having a heavy run of freight traffic, which shows a general prosperity in those places through which the line runs. They have their headquarters in Eugene.

American Legion Meets Wednesday

The regular meeting of the American Legion will be held at their rooms at the Court House, Wednesday evening, October 10. Reports from all Armistice Day committees will be heard and arrangements will be made to meet the Legion Special which goes through this city Sunday morning. According to departmental headquarters there will be about 1000 Legionnaires from Oregon attending the National Convention in San Francisco.

Pierce Recall Condemned

The Rogue River Valley Grange has little favor for the threatened recall of Governor Pierce. In a resolution passed at their meeting last Saturday night, the grangers came out flat-footed against the movement and expressed their confidence in the chief executive. The resolution was couched in strong terms. The resolution favoring the retention of the county agent and especially commending Mr. Howell, the present county agent, was passed. A committee of five was named to work for the income tax which is to be voted out at the special election on November 6.

CALIFORNIA GROWERS
AFTER LOWER RATES

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—(I. N. S.)

—Eastern consumers and California producers of fruit are alike interested in the proceedings brought by the California Growers and Shippers' Protective League against the transcontinental railroads for a reduction of rates. The case is to be heard next month by the interstate commerce commission in San Francisco.
Because of the importance to California interests the California railroad commission has petitioned for leave to intervene as a party to the case.

The action is directed against practically all rail carriers in the United States and names approximately 500 different carriers as defendants. It is alleged in the complaint that the transcontinental rates on fruits in effect are unjust, unreasonable and prejudicial.

Prior to the war increases the rate on deciduous fruits from all Pacific coast shipping points within the United States was $1.15 per 100 pounds. The first order of the director general of railroads, effective June 25, 1918, increased the rate to $1.44 per 100 pounds, and on August 26, 1920, in compliance with the order of the interstate commerce commission, which followed the passage by congress of the transportation act, the rate was increased to $1.92 per 100 pounds. Effective January 1, 1922, the rate was reduced to $1.73 per 100 pounds, which rate is in effect at the present time to designated points in the extreme eastern territory. There is at the same time in effect a rate of $1.62 per 100 pounds to points in the middle western territory.

The fruit shippers are endeavoring to have the rate re-established on the basis of $1.44 per 100 pounds which rate was in effect on June 25, 1918, and blanketed practically the entire United States.

The interstate commerce commission set the complaint for hearing at San Francisco October 15, 1923. Interested shippers claimed that this early setting would not permit of sufficient time for proper investigation and the preparation of exhibits and have requested the interstate commerce commission to reset the proceeding for hearing some time after November 15.

London, Oct. 8.—(I. N. S.)—England is beginning to imagine the United States as a land of goats. It's all because of the weird stories printed here about the sudden craze of Americans for rejuvenation through glands.

Tens of thousands of Americans can boast of goat glands sewn up in their anatomy, says Sir Edward Hul-ton's "Empire News"—and seriousminded English people believe the "Empire News."

"Goat farms are springing up with mushroom rapidity," continues this paper, "from Maine to Texas and from Narragansett to Oregon. Their growth so far exceeds the monkey farms of France that if Americans are not turned into goats before the French are turned into monkeys it will not be the fault of Dr. Brinkley, of Kansas, who has set the pace even for Voronoff."

Young Oliver Baldwin, son of Britain's Prime Minister, would be a trial to almost any other father but Stanley Baldwin. Young Bal-win is a Laborite, a progressive and a lover of adventure, and tells the world his views while his father treads the path of staid old British conservatism.

The elder Baldwin is not greatly worried by his young son's views; in fact he seems to rather good naturally admire the young man's independence.

"On the whole, the Prime Minister recently said to a friend, 'I think the boy gets a better press than I do.' He declined, however, to discuss his son's political views, except to say that it would be time enough to do that when they led from domestic discussion very much farther along the road to civil war.
The Prime Minister seems to be a wise father, but around the clubs where old die-hards gather before the fire there are serious discussions about 'this young Baldwin chap' and many an old-timer who thinks in Victorian terms is willing to predict that the boy will never grow up to be the man his father is."

Americans abroad are inclined to be a little skeptical of organizations which seek to promote international friendly feeling. Too often there is a "nigger in the woodpile" of these "hands across the sea" movements.
There is, however, one organization which blooms almost unseen and unknown in England. It is the Reunion of British War Missions. This organization is composed of men who went to the United States on war missions and came home convinced that England should know more about the good side of America.

Lesson 2

Easy Ways to Serve Fish and Meats

HAPPY is the housewife who can get away from the customary fried or baked meats and produce savory dishes that are both easily digested and tempting to the appetites of her family.

In this lesson I am going to suggest several delightful ways in which fish or meats can be enriched in flavor and made more nutritious by the addition of sauces or by special methods of cooking.

One of the first steps in the preparation of a white sauce, either thick or thin. Here are quick, simple recipes:

White Sauce

For thin white sauce take 2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter or substitute, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup water, 1/4 cup Carnation Milk. Melt butter or butter substitute, add flour and stir until thoroughly mixed. Add the milk and cook about five minutes or until the mixture thickens, and add seasonings. This recipe makes one cup sauce.

Thick white sauce is made just the same way, except use twice the flour (4 tablespoons) and 3/4 tablespoons butter or substitute.
These sauces can be used in a variety of ways in preparing either fish or meats.

Fish Croquettes

1 cup cold cooked fish, 1 cup thick white sauce, salt and pepper. Pull fish apart in small pieces, using a fork. Season with salt and pepper and add to thick white sauce; then put on a plate to cool. Shape, roll in crumbs, then in slightly beaten egg and again in bread crumbs, and fry in deep fat. Drain and garnish with parsley.
This recipe serves six people.

Creamed Salmon

2 cups salmon, 2 cups thin white sauce; fish the first add to hot thin white sauce and serve on toast. This recipe serves six people.

Baked Hash

1/4 cup fat, 1 1/2 cups meat, 3 cups mashed potatoes, onion juice, salt and pepper, chopped parsley.
Grind the cooked meat and season. Melt one tablespoon fat in a baking dish. Mix the ingredients well, moisten with Carnation Milk diluted with water, put in the oil baking dish and bake in a moderately hot oven until brown on top. This recipe serves six people.

Fish Souffle

2 cups fish, 1 1/2 cups thin white sauce, parsley and 3 eggs beaten separately.

(Clip and paste this lesson in your cook book. If you have missed any previous lesson, I will be glad to send it to you on request.)

Flake the cooked fish and season. Cool the thin white sauce, add the fish, then the well-beaten yolks and mix. Fold in the whites of eggs beaten stiff. Bake in buttered individual baking dishes or in a pudding dish set in a pan of hot water. Bake twenty minutes, or until puffed and brown. Serve immediately. This recipe serves six people.

Creamed Chipped Beef

1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/4 cup Carnation Milk, 1 cup water, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 pound chipped beef. Melt the butter, add flour, stirring constantly until thoroughly blended. Add the liquid, salt and pepper. Let boil until thickened, stirring occasionally. Add beef and continue cooking until beef is heated through. Turn onto a hot platter and garnish with toast points. This recipe will serve four people.

Questions and Answers

Is there any sugar used in making Carnation Milk? Mrs. T. M. B.

No; Carnation is just pure cow's milk evaporated until about half the water is removed. Nothing is added.

Can you tell me the proper way to set a table? Mrs. B. W. S.

Full directions for this will be found on the inside cover of the book, "One Hundred Tested Recipes," which will be sent free to you on request.

Why do you call Carnation the milk "from patented cows"?—Mrs. J. M. C.

In the earliest days of its manufacture it was determined that only high-grade milk from dairies which conformed to certain regulations in their care of cows, was sufficiently good to be used in making Carnation Milk. Where these rules for the care and feeding of cows are observed, the animals could not help but be contented, and it is a well-known fact that under such conditions a cow will give more and better milk.
