John Dickson, of Spokane, spent the day attending to business matters in Grants Pass.

John Apple, of the Illinois valley, was among the local business visitors yesterday.

People holding ice cream makers and bricks, return to Horning's Shack at once as we need them. 48 Mrs. E. E. Redfield and Misses Gertrude Nebel and Alice Nebel were among the Glendale people who shopped in Grants Pass yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pinckney, of Truckee, Calif., who were former residents of Grants Pass, are visiting friends here for a few days.

H. D. Norton left yesterday afternoon for San Jose and San Francisco where he will attend a convention of bankers. He also expects to attend the annual big game between Stanford and the University of California at Berkeley. He is to meet Mrs. Norton at San Jose, she having preceded him by several weeks.

Glasses fitted at Letcher & Son's. Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Webber and young son came over last night from Crescent City to meet Mr. Webber's brother, E. J. Webber, who arrived this morning from Alaska. They returned to the coast city today. Mr. Webber states that Crescent City is having lots of business and is enjoying prosperity. He states that he looks for a big future for the seaport town.

Homecomers Are Warned—

Those intending to go to the Oregon-O. A. C. football game at Eugene Saturday are warned that the traffic officers are to be on the watch for speeders. T. A. Raffey, in charge of the state traffic squad, announced every effort will be made to curb speeding to and from the game. Mr. Raffey said his men had been instructed to patrol carefully all highways in the state leading to Eugene and that all persons who violate the traffic laws will be arrested. Contrary to custom speeders who are arrested will not be released upon putting up cash bail, but will be held by the officers until they can be arraigned in the courts.

Next Monday— November 26, the music department of the Grants Pass Womens club will give a concert in the Presbyterian church. Silver offering, Benefit Memorial House. 52

Has "Smallest" Gun—

Local people were interested Tuesday in an account of a man in Portland having a revolver for a watch charm which really shoots. Al Letcher has one of the same guns, presented to him by a traveling salesman. The gun is about an inch and a half long and shoots small cartridges that are almost too small to handle. It makes a loud report when it is shot, sounding almost as loud as a .22 caliber rifle. The gun was made in Austria. It breaks like a real gun.

Duck Shooting Poor—

Duck and goose shooting in the Klamath region was rather poor over the week end according to reports from hunters returning from there. The weather was too clear and the birds were so high that it was almost impossible to reach them. A party consisting of Bert Stephenson, W. R. Rennie, L. M. Nichols and J. M. Nichols, returned Tuesday night bringing about 40 ducks and geese with them. Several other parties of local people are hunting there, but are reported to be having rather slim pickings.

Sport Writer Leaves—

W. M. Maier, who has been spending the past few months at Aberdeen Villa getting acquainted with the Southern Oregon fishing and hunting, left this morning for Seattle. He made a request before he left for pictures of actual fishing and hunting scenes here to incorporate within his series of articles dealing with the Rogue river country, which are shortly to appear in the Forest and Stream magazine, for which he is western editor. Mr. Maier states that he expects to come back here to find a location where he can spend several months every year hunting and fishing for the steelheads. He was greatly pleased with this section of the state and has a series of six articles written.

Many Rails Ripped Up— A narrow escape from a serious accident was experienced last night at about 1 o'clock when a freight was derailed near Wolf Creek. One of the cars went off the track and ripped up 57 rails, a distance of some three-quarters of a mile, before the train was stopped. The damage was repaired and train 13 was less than an hour late today. Only the one car was wrecked.
