ASHLAND WOMAN IS RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Ashland, Ore., Feb. 13.—(A. P.) —Mrs. J. S. Razor, 60, is in the sanitarium here with a fractured skull as the result of being struck by an automobile driven by Dr. J. P. Chisholm on the boulevard shortly before noon.

Dr. Chisholm was arrested on a charge of careless driving and released on his own recognizance, pending the outcome of Mrs. Razor's injury. He admitted driving his car with poor brakes. Mrs. Razor had just got out of a car.

The Razors recently suffered the loss of their farm a few miles south of here by fire.

Will Attend Fight—

A number of local fight fans are making arrangements to go to Portland this week to witness the Dundee-Gorman fight, in which the local scrapper is said to have a slight edge over his opponent. Ken Williams, left-fighter for the St. Louis Browns, expected to get away today for the event. Dundee, he says, will have to put up an awfully good fight to beat Joe, who is an in-fighter and will cause Dundee some uneasy moments. Joe was called up from Los Angeles where he has been in a number of fights with Southern California featherweights.

tailoring shop from the old location on G street to the rooms immediately above his old stand. He is now transacting business in the new shop.

Heater Is Installed—

A hot water heating plant, devised by Matthews and Elliott, has been installed in the Valley hardware. The radiators are heated with water sent through coils in the large heater in the back of the store. The local plumbers tried out the plant this morning and found it to be entirely satisfactory.

Medford Banquet Attended—

Nine local Republicans attended the annual Lincoln Day banquet at Medford Tuesday night, at which the Republicans of Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties were represented. The principal speaker of the evening was B. F. Mulkey who made a splendid talk on the subject of Abraham Lincoln. Other talks were also heard, E. W. Miller, of this city, making a few remarks. Those attending the affair were E. W. Miller, Dr. J. C. Smith, Wilford Allen Sr., W. E. Newcombe, A. B. Cornell, L.
W. Carson, E. E. Blanchard, J. L.
Stanbrough and T. A. Robie.

Pass organization started.

Cows Will Be Sold—

An auction of a carload of good Jersey milk cows will be held on Saturday, February 16, at the L street barn. The cows are all tuberculin tested and are guaranteed free from infection. The sale will be held at 1 p. m., rain or shine. The owner, G. O. Toft, has recently sold his Willamette valley ranch and is bringing his dairy stock here to dispose of them to Josephine county farmers.

How Far to Portland?—

Members of the state highway commission who passed through Ashland last week counting the highway mileage finished their job at the state highway line and returned to Ashland Saturday. They report that from the intersection of Seventh and Washington streets in Portland to the state line, a distance of 345.75 miles was totaled. Members of the party returned to Portland and will mark the west side highway.—Ashland Tidings.
