An Ad Did the Business—
An advertisement in the Courier did the business for J. F. Webster, who had a half dozen Jersey cows to sell. He put a small display ad in the paper and is now sorry he did not have at least 25 cows to sell. He states that he could easily have disposed of that number to people who read the ad and went out to his place to buy them. He sold all six in one lot. Mr. Webster, who is a raiser of purebred cattle, states that he is surprised at the great demand here for dairy cattle and believes that it presages an era of prosperity.

FRUIT JUICES WITH KICK ARE UNLAWFUL

Washington, Aug. 13.—(A. P.)—A warning against using the current fruit crop to making intoxicating beverages in the home has been issued by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League. The case pending against Representative John Phillip Hill, of Maryland, for alleged manufacture of illegal fruit juices at home is cited. Mr. Wheeler set forth his views on fruit juices to correct possible misinterpretation of his recent statements on the subject before the house judiciary committee, when the 2.75 percent beer bills were being aired.

"The fruit crop now coming on the market may be used in making non-intoxicating fruit juices for exclusive home use," Mr. Wheeler explained. "If the juices become intoxicating in fact, then they are forbidden for beverage use by the constitution and the Volstead act, which exempts only non-intoxicating fruit juices and cider for exclusive use in the home."

"Congressman Hill tested this law when he made fruit juices containing as high as 19 percent of alcohol, last year, claiming that the law permitted this. The government challenged his right to make fruit juice that was in fact intoxicating wine. A temporary injunction issued by United States District Judge Soper, prevents Mr. Hill from further violations of the law. The date of final hearing has not been set, although the case was filed October 13, 1923. If Mr. Hill makes more beverage intoxicants under the name of fruit juices, he is liable for contempt of court. Intoxicating fruit juices are under the ban, even when made in the home to drink. Mr. Hill is in Europe, where fruit juices may be obtained with as high an alcoholic content as desired."

Report of Orchard Heating Committee

As a result of the severe frost damage during the spring of 1924, demonstrations of orchard heating and non-heating were conducted by the county agent's office and a great deal of interest was shown by many orchardists who have not heated in the past. In order to accumulate data with reference to the most economical orchard heating devices a committee of fruit growers was appointed to obtain all information possible relative to type of equipment best suited for the Rogue river valley, cost of same, number of heaters per acres, etc.

Knowing from past experience with cooperative buying in the Rogue River Valley and many districts in California that reduced prices could be obtained by the growers through pooling their orders, it was deemed advisable to undertake to pool orders and ask various companies for bids on large quantities.

Your committee has canvassed a great many growers and has been able to obtain tentative orders for a large number of heaters. Bids have been received from several companies and the committee wishes to approve as the best and lowest bid that of the American Can Company with prices on the various types of equipment submitted below:

| | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------|-----------------|
| 10 qts. 28-gauge, no spider | $.34 | less 2 per cent |
| 10 qts., 28-gauge, with spider | .37 | less 2 per cent |
| Seamless, 8-qt., 24 gauge | .46 | less 2 per cent |
| Briquet heaters | 1.00 | less 2 per cent |
| 5 qt. heaters | .25 1/2 | less 2 per cent |
| 10 qts. galvanized, 15c additional. | | |
| 5 qts. galvanized, 12c additional. | | |
| Scheu heater, 7 gal. capacity | 2.75 | less 2 per cent |

1. From experience of several fruit growers who have protected their orchards many years in the past, and also through experimental work carried on by the Weather Bureau in cooperation with the county agent's office, your committee believes that the lard pail type of oil heater is best suited for use in this valley.

2. Your committee recommends to growers purchasing equipment, a minimum of one hundred and fifty-five quart or ten-quart lard pail heaters per acre.

3. As a general recommendation for the small orchard of five to ten acres, purchase all ten-quart heaters.

4. For large tracts, we recommend the purchase of one-half the number of five-quart heaters and one-half ten-quart heaters.

5. We recommend two border rows surrounding the orchard equipped with three ten-quart heaters per tree.

Your committee wishes to report that a reduction of fifteen per cent has been obtained by pooling orders for the orchard heating equipment.

Your committee is also investigating community storage of oil, and asking for bids on orchard storage tanks, and expects to secure material reduction in price, and will make report later on storage tanks.

Respectfully Submitted,
DR. R. W. CLANCY, Chairman,
S. M. TUTTLE,
H. S. DEUEL,
DAVE ROSENBERG.
