AMUSEMENTS

Sam Griffin's Original Premier Minstrels, coming to the Rivoli theatre tonight, are now making their third tour of the Pacific coast. The company is composed this year of some of the most notable minstrel singers and comedians in the country today, and will be the best aggregation that has visited the Pacific coast since Billy West's minstrels made their last tour some 15 years ago. Nearly all members of this company are from the big minstrel shows of the east and have spent their entire career in minstrelry. Happy Benway, principal comedian of this company, is one of America's foremost black face comedians and occupies a place in this profession almost exclusively his own. Mr. Benway was formerly one of the principal comedians with the original Honey Boy Evans Minstrels, said to be one of the greatest minstrel shows ever produced in this country up to the time. He later made a tour of the Orpheum circuit with seven of the original Honey Boys.

Indian College Girl Is Noted for Oratory

Ruth Muskrat, full-blooded Cherokee Indian girl, and student at Mt. Holyoke college, Mass., who is the guiding light of her tribe. It is she who is leading the fight in congress to have her people given a fighting chance to live, instead of being handicapped by having their lands taken away.

She is noted for her oratory, having swayed Americans and her own Indian peoples with her eloquence. She will soon get her degree, and along with her Y. W. C. A. training, she intends to do all in her power to return the confiscated lands.

Wireless Telegraphy

Marconi first succeeded in telegraphing certain signals across the Atlantic in 1901 and the first complete message was sent in 1903. Transoceanic telephony was first accomplished in 1915, when speech was transmitted from Washington to Paris and to Honolulu, the latter distance being almost 5,000 miles.

Dog Saves His Mistress

Port Jervis, N. Y.—Mrs. Henry Tschudy, sixty, of Matamoras, Pa., was stricken with paralysis while picking huckleberries in the mountains of Pike county, Pa., the other day. Her dog realized something was wrong with his mistress, who lay unconscious, and, by continuous barking, attracted other berry pickers. It was necessary to get the woman's husband before the dog would permit any one to touch his mistress. Mrs. Tschudy was carried on an improvised stretcher through the steep rocky mountain, a mile to the nearest road, where an automobile and physician were waiting. She was taken home.

MAN WITH PRICE ON HIS HEAD WRITES FOR PAPER

Todor Alexandroff, Macedonian Rebel Leader, Startles the People of Belgrade.

Belgrade.—While the Serbian government is offering a price for him, dead or alive, Todor Alexandroff, the Macedonian rebel leader, entered into Serbian politics the other day with an article on the first page of the Republic, which made Belgradians rub their eyes.

After pointing out that in his opinion Serbians mistakenly ascribe the unrest in Macedonia to the incompetent Pashitch administration, to provocations from Bulgaria, to the "traitor" Raditch or to the "cruel" Alexandroff, Alexandroff writes, over his signature as a member of the central committee of the Internal Macedonian organization: "All oppressed nationalities who jealously guard their nationality are struggling shoulder to shoulder to attain their right to self-determination.

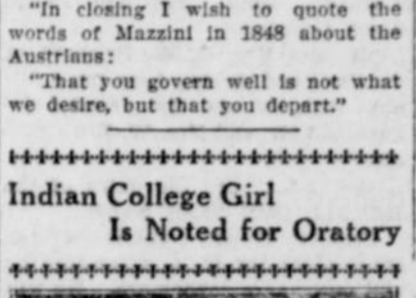

"After they have won their autonomy, they will be in a position to organize a great federated state with equal rights for all nationalities.

"Neither a powerful government, able to repress the activities of revolutionary bands, nor a good administration can prevent the dissolution of imperialistic Yugo-Slavia. The oppressed nationalities in Serbia are struggling neither for the attainment of a strong chauvinistic government nor for a wise Serbian administration (two incompatible terms), but for their liberties.

"In closing I wish to quote the words of Mazzini in 1848 about the Austrians: "That you govern well is not what we desire, but that you depart."

Is Noted for Oratory

The British polo team had just first International match. It may be noted he's wearing his favorite American four—but the Prince of Wales kept right on smiling. He is seen here leaving the field after the others in his wardrobe but he seems to prefer this over the rest of them.

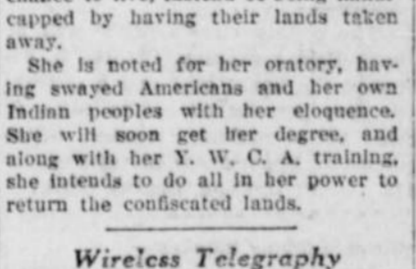

It was a real "love feast"—the Democratic nomination for governor of Arkansas, gave his defeated rivals in Little Rock. He ran on an anti-Klan ticket. From left to right are

Jim G. Ferguson, commissioner of mines, manufactures and agriculture, his bitterest opponent in the primary; Chancellor John E. Martincau and Lee Cazort, the Klan candidate.

Just Missed Two Kiddies

Two little children narrowly escaped death or serious injury when this fire engine crashed into the side of an apartment building in Baltimore. They were sitting right near this doorway when the accident occurred. Bricks and stone were showered about them, but the kiddies weren't even scratched.
