AMUSEMENTS

ROUGH RIDING IS SEEN IN "TEN COMMANDMENTS"

Though history lacks record of equestrians among the early Egyptians and Israelites, the actors and actresses playing the principal roles in the Biblical spectacle of "The Ten Commandments," at the Rivoli theater on Sunday, had to be rough riders, and 'twas no side saddle business for the ladies, either. Estelle Taylor practiced on a chariot steed and Leatrice Joy rode muleback, while Rod La Rocque succeeded in conquering a seat on a busting broncho. Even the distinguished Theodore Roberts, his long Moses garments trailing behind, rode to work like a Canterbury pilgrim.

No high-powered limousines nor automobiles "The Ten Commandments" players when they went on location. You see, the western desert stretch that they named Egypt, and where the ancient scenes were made, was so deep in loose sand that neither flivver nor Rolls Royce could negotiate it. The only practicable conveyance was team and sand sledge, and they just crawled. How could a player enjoy "forty winks" and late breakfast and get out to the filming?

The ladies first took to borrowing steeds, and the men followed suit. It was rough work, for the sand was very uneven and the sandunes steep. Any day one might meet Miriam or the Queen of Egypt on the queerest mount, and there were no runaways but the spills were many. Egypt and Israel made a grotesque procession, nevertheless got there just the same. You might not think it, but these stately actors of Old Testament tales in the De Mille spectacle at the Rivoli theater became qualified in these pilgrimages back and forth to win medals at a rodeo.

NOTICE OF SALE OF GOVERNMENT TIMBER

Oct 27, 1925.

General Land Office, Washington, D. C. Notice is hereby given that subject to the conditions and limitations of the acts of June 9, 1914 (38 Stat., 218), February 26, 1919 (40 Stat., 1175), and departmental regulations of April 14, 1924 (39 L. D., 376), the timber on the following lands will be sold Dec. 15, 1924, at 10 o'clock A. M., at public auction at the United States land office at Roseburg, Oregon, to the highest bidder at not less than the appraised value as shown by this notice, said to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The purchase price, with an additional sum of one-fifth of 1 per cent thereof, being commissions allowed, must be deposited at time of sale, money to be returned if sale is not approved, otherwise patent will issue for the timber which must be removed within ten years. Bids will be received from citizens of the United States, associations of such citizens and corporations organized under the laws of the United States, or any State, Territory or District thereof only. Upon application of a qualified purchaser, the timber on any legal subdivision will be offered separately before being included in any offer of a larger unit. Will Gland Treatment Prolong Youth and Life?

Dr. Serge Voronoff, the eminent French authority on glands, as a result of his experiments believes that men who have arrived at the age where their intellectual and physical faculties commence to diminish, or their memory becomes unreliable, their thoughts tardy, and their efforts more difficult, or where the ardors of life slacken and decline, and even end—these men will find in glandular treatment a means whereby they may combat these infirmities to prolong equally their will power and their lives.

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen, for men and women, is obtainable at Couch's Pharmacy. Mail orders accepted.
