Styles of Many Kinds From Paris

Every steamer brings something new and different to appeal to the expert eye. Just now hats, large and sweeping, soft and snug, or high brimmed and quaint, lend allure to the feminine fashion world. The cloche, which held sway for so long a period, is gradually being replaced by a hat of quite different lines.

The directoire influence, while strong, and most becoming to the smartly attired, is dividing favor with the broad brimmed hat which so intriguingly shades the eyes.

The smart hat for daytime is close fitting and chic. Frequently it is of satin—and soft. These hats possess the highest of fashion recommendations—smart people are wearing them at smart places.

One hat in great favor is of black satin, with a softly draped crown. A tiny brim of white feathers outlines the face. It is just the sort of hat which lends distinction to the simplest of costumes.

Feather trimmings are smart and are much used in pom-pom fashion at the right side of the hat. Many felt or satins designed along sports lines are made formal by a fortune in feathers.

The uncurled ostrich lends chic when worn in outstanding manner on the square crowned hat with a tiny brim.

The high crowned hat with the brim turned abruptly up in back is very much the favorite with the smartly dressed. It is every bit as comfortable and becoming as the long-lived cloche.

The directoire hat, with its high crown and quaint brim, is lovely when appropriately dressed. The band under the chin which so often accompanies this model is quite the latest thing from Paris. It is also used with smart effect on the close-fitting hat which so resembles the aeroplane helmet.

Another mode which is much used is the tri-cornered hat which is so simply and smartly trimmed with feathers, fur or ribbon.

Jeweled ornaments appropriately trim the small hat, while chiffon scarfs, knotted in front, embroidery, and feathers decorate the large hat of sweeping brim.

Chicken Pie (Southern Style)

Cook chicken until tender. Remove meat from the bones. Thicken the gravy. Line a deep baking dish with the following pastry, leaving enough to cover the top:

- 2 cups flour.
- 1/2 cup Crisco.
- ice water.
- 1 egg beaten.
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice.
- 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Sift flour and salt; cut Crisco in with two knives. Add gradually the lemon juice and egg mixed together. Add enough ice water to hold the mixture together for rolling. When the baking dish is lined with the pastry put in a layer of chicken, then a layer of sliced boiled carrots and small boiled white onions. Season to taste; add another layer of chicken and so on until the dish is filled. Cover with gravy. Roll the rest of the pastry; cover, pressing edges together closely and make a few slits in the top to allow steam to escape. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, until done.

Clever Laundry Bag

A pretty lady that will make herself useful is just what most men are looking for. Here is one who is sure of success with them, for her head is of painted wood and her brightly flowered, cretonne skirt makes a capacious laundry bag. She may be scroll-sawed out of thin board or cut from paper wall board, and painted—or found ready-made in novelty shops.

Choosing the Fur Wrap

Despite the popularity of the ensemble suit and coat dress, the fur wrap, or jaunty jacket is again popularized by the smartly attired feminine world.

Designed with the flaring hem line, the above wrap is decidedly graceful. The deep shawl collar is unadorned and may be wrapped snugly beneath the chin. The sleeves possess an unusual feature in the shirred in effect at the cuff. The shirred border of moleskin achieves a new note and relieves the wrap of a too severe simplicity. Touches of this sort lift fur models far above the ordinary level.

It is entirely of moleskin and relies upon its beauty of line rather than a combination of other furs for its effectiveness. Consequently the Paisley silk lining discreetly displayed is most important in adding a colorful note.

Many wraps of favored furs possess unusual features in a design and fur combinations, for this is a season when individual taste may be satisfied.

Corn Oysters

You will love these and you can fry them without any smoke.

Beat the egg until foamy, add to the corn. Mix flour, salt and pepper and add this to the corn. Beat well. Drop by spoonfuls in deep Crisco. Fry a golden brown. They should be made about the size of a large oyster. Makes two dozen.

Fluffy Biscuits

- 3/4 cup milk.

Sift together four times, flour, baking powder and salt. Mix Crisco in very lightly with fork. Add milk slowly; roll out or pat with hands on floured board to about one inch thickness. Handle as little as possible. Cut with biscuit cutter first dipped in flour. Bake in hot oven, 375 degrees, twelve or fifteen minutes.

Caramel Sweet Potatoes

With a lovely glaze; without smoke or scorching when fried as directed.

- 4 sweet potatoes.
  - Hot Crisco.
  - Granulated sugar.
- Boil the potatoes, peel and then cut them lengthwise in halves. Fry in skillet in hot Crisco. While frying, sprinkle generously with sugar on both sides.

Christmas Lampshades

Happy is the home-maker who receives pretty lamp or candle shades at Christmas time—nothing helps more to deck out the house and make it cheerful. Here is a new shade made of thin silk, or fine crepe paper, in two colors, rose and light blue. A wire frame is first covered with the rose color, put in place, and over this the light blue is plaited. Gold lace, silk or paper roses and four tassels finish off this novelty in shades.
