BAKER BASEBALL AT BOISE FIRECRACKER TOURNAMENT

Brewers place seventh at Firecracker

By Gerry Steele
gsteel@bakercityherald.com

Baker shut out Twin Falls 14-0 Sunday morning to place seventh at the annual Boise Firecracker baseball tournament.

Sam McCauley threw a two-hit shutout, striking out six and walking two.

McCauley also led the Brewers offense, going 3-for-4 with a double and three RBIs.

Mason Van Arsdall, Warner Robertson and Justin Miller each added two hits.

Miller and Conner Lay both had two RBIs.

Baker opened tournament action Thursday with a 4-3 win against the Tri-Cities

Badgers.

Lay was the winning pitcher in relief of McCauley.

Friday, Baker lost 11-2 to Rocky Mountain.

McCauley had two hits. Logan McCluskey was the losing pitcher.

Baker then bounced back to edge Twin Falls 6-5.

Lay earned the win.

Warner Robertson added the save.

McCluskey had two hits and McCauley two RBIs.

Saturday, the Brewers fell 3-2 to the Boise Senators.

Robertson took the loss.

Zander Arriaga had two hits.

The Brewers then topped the Eagle Vipers 18-7.

Spencer Shirtcliff was the winning pitcher.

McCauley, Van Arsdall and Miller each had three hits. Lay and Payton Shirtcliff each had two hits. Shirtcliff added two RBIs.

Baker travels to Seaside for a tournament next weekend.

Timbers top Earthquakes; extend streak

PORTLAND (AP) — Samuel Armenteros scored two goals and the Portland Timbers extended their MLS unbeaten streak to 11 matches with a 2-1 victory over the San Jose Earthquakes on Saturday night.

Armenteros scored during the 14th and 53rd minutes for the Timbers (8-3-5).

Portland, 0-3-2 to start the season, is tied for fourth in the West Division. The Timbers, who have an unbeaten streak of 13, counting U.S. Open Cup matches, haven't lost since falling to Orlando on April 8. The Timbers, 8-0-3 during this run, have the longest unbeaten streak in the MLS this season. The franchise record is 15 matches.

“Overall, it was a good performance. I thought we played very well at some moments of the match, and it was very optimistic,” Portland coach Giovanni Savarese said.

San Jose (2-10-6) extended its winless streak to nine games. Florian Jungwirth scored the Earthquakes' lone goal during the 87th minute.

Portland outshot the Earthquakes 19-14.

Armenteros gave Portland an early boost with his goal in the 14th minute. Midfielder Diego Valeri hit Armenteros in stride just inside the penalty box, and the Timbers forward easily blasted an 8-yard shot past Andrew Tarbell for a 1-0 lead. Valeri's assist made him the 11th player in MLS history to have more than 60 career goals and 60 career assists.

Armenteros was on the verge of an enormous first half. During the 25th minute, he had a point-blank shot on goal that Tarbell deflected to the right. Just before halftime, Armenteros took a crack at a 14-yard bicycle kick that just missed the goal's right corner.

Armenteros added a second goal early in the second half. Again fed by Valeri, Armenteros slipped past San Jose's double team, then put a short left-footed shot under Tarbell's arms for a 2-0 Timbers lead.

It was the second two-goal game this season for Armenteros, who has six goals in 15 games. Armenteros, who played in Italy in 2017, was an offseason acquisition by the Timbers.

Healy leads Seattle 6-4 win

By Daimon Eklund
The Associated Press

SEATTLE — Ryon Healy came to the plate in the first inning mired in an 0-for-13 slump. The Seattle Mariners had the bases loaded and two outs, and Healy broke through in a big way.

Healy doubled to drive in two runs, and followed it up with an even bigger three-run homer in the seventh to tie his career high with five RBIs and lead the Mariners to a 6-4 win against the Colorado Rockies on Sunday.

“It was a big situation there in the first, bases loaded with two outs. It felt great,” Healy said. “It felt like a monkey was lifted off my back, just helping the team there.”

Healy's homer was his 18th of the season and helped the Mariners bounce back after dropping the first two games of the series.

Wade LeBlanc (5-0) picked up the win despite giving up four runs and allowing three homers to the Rockies in six innings. The three homers allowed were the most by LeBlanc in an appearance this season.

Charlie Blackmon, Carlos Gonzalez and Trevor Story hit the homers for the Rockies, who snapped a five-game winning streak.

“All three cases were good hitters,” LeBlanc said. “A couple mistakes, and the one to Story I thought was a good pitch.”

Edwin Diaz struck out all three batters he faced in the ninth for his major league-leading 35th save.

Colorado starter Antonio Senzatela (3-2) allowed all six runs and five hits, walking three with two strikeouts.

“I just wanted to be able to give the team a chance to win. I just needed to settle down. In the sixth, I had one bad pitch and it cost us.”

Senzatela was making his second start of the season after opening the year in the bullpen and a stint in Triple-A Albuquerque. He pitched seven scoreless innings in his previous outing on July 3.
