Bulldogs shine at home cross country meet

■ Baker boys place 3rd in team results while the girls claim sixth place

By Gerry Steele

Baker closed out its home cross country season Friday, hosting the Baker Invitational at Quail Ridge Golf Course.

“A great day for some amazing runners,” said Baker coach Suzy Cole.

Cole said this was the biggest Baker Invite with 11 teams participating.

“Hopefully we can continue this level of competition on a yearly basis,” Cole said. “As for Baker, I was very pleased with our results.”

On the girls side, every girl except one ran a personal record.

Corah Downing placed eighth overall with a time of 21:53.

“This is remarkable given how difficult our course is,” Cole said. “I am amazed with their performance, and it shows the grit and determination that they have to improve themselves. Their hard work running trails, road and hills all over the county is paying off.

“I am particularly pleased with Sydney Keller and Jayden Rice who had amazing performances,” Cole said.

On the boys side, Baker also had a big number of personal bests, and Kale Cassidy placed fifth overall with a time of 17:29.

“I am so pleased that we have a pack of runners that are performing well which will continue to allow us to be competitive in future races,” Cole said.

“It was a very good day for Joseph Daugherty who was also recognized as a part of our Senior Recognition event.

“We had two freshmen,

Baker High School's Kale Cassidy, second from left, carves out a place to run until he later pulls ahead and turns in a fifth-place finish Friday during the Baker Invitational cross country meet at Quail Ridge Golf Course.

Gavin Stone and Hayden Younger, who gave it their all and it paid off big time. We are also pleased Jake Cuzick is back after his injury that has kept him sidelined for most of the year,” Cole said.

Baker's next meet is the Crosby Invitational at Ontario on Thursday.
