Nobody told Megan Brown her trip to South Africa as a Rotary exchange student would include evading an angry ostrich.

The 16-year-old high school junior just took the escape in stride, said her mom, Debbie.

Brown left Baker City July 21 for a one-year stay in Kimberley, South Africa.

A prescribed fire near the Oregon Trail Interpretive Center fizzled Friday afternoon.

But BLM officials might try again, as soon as this afternoon, to see if flames have developed a taste for sagebrush.

BLM fire manager intended to burn grass and sagebrush on about 70 acres of Flagstaff Hill south and southeast of the Interpretive Center.

The blaze they lit Friday got the grass going but it barely scorched the sage.

This Sunday, Baker City's First Lutheran Church will celebrate its roots by observing the 500th anniversary of the day Martin Luther posted his Ninety-five Theses and sparked the Protestant Reformation.

"Oct. 31, 1517, is when historians mark the Protestant Reformation," said Ian Wolfe, pastor of First Lutheran. "The Reformation changed the religious landscape, political landscape, education landscape and the economic landscape. It is where our heritage begins as Lutherans."

OBITUARIES

Dennis Cheney

Walla Walla, Washington

Dennis Timothy Cheney, 59, of Walla Walla, Washington, died Oct. 19, 2018, when he was hit by a drunk driver near Baker City.

Service will be Saturday, Nov. 3 at 10:30 a.m. at the College Place (Washington) Presbyterian Church. Following the service, a celebration of life will be held the only way Tim would have wanted it... At Kelly's Lounge in Milton-Freewater at 4 p.m. with his friends, a cold beer, and a good list of karaoke songs.

Tim lived life to the fullest and never had a dull moment. Tim was a good man, a good friend, and the best dad. He was always there to lend a helping hand or crack a bad joke. He would help anyone with no expectation in return. He leaves behind a heartbroken family and a bunch of friends that will sorely miss him.

Tim was a lover of his animals, dancing, singing, rodeos and having a flat good time. You could find him most weekends either riding his horse in the mountains or going to a rodeo, and always with his dog, Pickles.

He is survived by his three children,

Dennis Cheney

Tara Kristensen, Travis Cheney and CeCe Cheney.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Idaho Youth Ranch through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.

Betty Annis

Baker City, 1924-2018

Betty Stephenson Annis, 94, of Baker City, died peacefully on Oct. 21, 2018.

At Betty's request, there will be no services.

Betty was born on March 6, 1924, at Walla Walla, Washington. When she was 7 years old her mother died, leaving Betty to be raised by her maternal grandmother. Betty recalled her childhood as being not overly happy since her grandmother was very, very strict. Occasionally, though, she was allowed to stay at her Grandma and Grandpa Stephenson's farm in the Rye Valley near Mormon Basin. There Betty was allowed as much freedom as she wanted which included riding horseback over the wild and beautiful country there.

Betty Annis

Betty married Bill Annis, and the couple lived near the Rogue River for several years. Later on they moved to various other places. In connection with Bill's work, they traveled quite extensively throughout the USA. After their marriage ended in divorce, Betty was employed in Reno, Nevada, for many years.

She retired and moved to Baker City where well into her 80s she would drop everything when the chance arose to go golfing, pick huckleberries, hunt mushrooms, go bike riding, or just take a drive to enjoy the beauty of Eastern Oregon. Whether spring, summer, or fall, the sight of quaking aspens always drew a comment from her; she loved her "quakes" as she called them.

Betty packed a lot of living in her long, fruitful life. Always an animal lover, avid reader and fantastic cook, in later years she enjoyed pinochle parties with "the girls." Most of all, Betty was a wonderful, loyal, vibrant friend who will be missed by all who knew her. Rest in peace, Dear Betty, thanks for all the laughs & memorable times we had together, her friends said.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Baker County Library Foundation, 2400 Resort St. Baker City, OR 97814.
