Huskies romp over Eastern Washington

By Tim Booth
AP Sports Writer

SEATTLE — Through the first few weeks of the regular season, it's become clear if Washington is going to be successful it must find depth with its scoring. It can't be Jaylen Nowell and Noah Dickerson all the time.

Dominic Green showed Tuesday night the potential to be that complementary scorer.

Green hit seven 3-pointers and scored a career-high 25 points, David Crisp added 14 points and Washington cruised past Eastern Washington 83-59 on Tuesday night.

Green became the recipient of Washington's renewed effort not to be stagnant on offense, but to move and share the ball and create opportunities. On this night those open looks came from the perimeter and Green rarely missed.

Green was 7 of 10 on 3s, finishing two off the school record of nine 3s set by Ryan Appleby in February 2008 against Oregon State. Green's previous high was six 3-pointers last season against Bethune-Cookman.

The Huskies made 12 of 28 3-pointers.

Freshman leads Washington St. to win

PULLMAN, Wash. — Freshman CJ Elleby scored a career-high 23 points and grabbed 11 rebounds with four assists as Washington State beat Cal State Northridge 103-94 on Tuesday night.

Robert Franks added 22 points and seven rebounds for Washington State (4-1). Vion'te Daniels had 14 points, going 4-8 from 3-point range.

Elleby was the spark WSU needed with Franks scoring a season-low 22 points. He energized the Cougars with two blocks and provided easy buckets in transition.

WSU shot 51 percent from the field and assisted on 27 of their 36 made shots.

CSUN cut the lead to eight in the last minute after forcing a turnover in the backcourt and converting a layup, but the deficit was too much to overcome.

OREGON MEN'S BASKETBALL

Texas Southern shocks Ducks

By Ron Richmond
Associated Press

EUGENE — Trayvon Reed picked the right night to be perfect.

Reed scored 23 points and John Jones added 20 to help Texas Southern shock No. 18 Oregon with an 89-84 victory Monday night.

Reed, a 7-foot-2 senior, made all nine of his shots and also was 5-for-5 from the foul line for the Tigers (2-4), who were 24-point underdogs.

"Trayvon did an excellent job," Texas Southern coach Johnny Jones said. "It was his best game by far all year long. I thought he performed at a really good pace on both ends of the floor."

"Offensively, he was very effective and he played with a lot of energy on the defensive end. I thought he had them uncomfortable at both."

All nine of Reed's field goals came on dunks as the Ducks couldn't keep him away from the rim.

"We never got physical with him," Oregon coach Dana Altman said. "He kind of did whatever he wanted."

It was just the fourth nonconference loss at home for the Ducks since Matthew Knight Arena opened in 2011.

Jalyn Patterson had a double-double with 13 points and 11 assists, and Derrick Bruce added 13 points for Texas Southern, which scored 57 points in the second half.

Oregon led by 13 points early in the second half before the Tigers rallied. Reed's dunk with 9:59 left in the game capped a 23-8 run and gave the Tigers a 61-59 advantage.

Bol Bol, the Ducks' 7-2 freshman center, had 32 points and 11 rebounds for his third double-double. He hit two free throws with 3:20 left to tie the game at 75.

Reed then scored four straight points to give the Tigers a 79-75 advantage with 2:18 left. Will Richardson hit two free throws 12 seconds later to get Oregon back within two.

Bruce had eight points in the final 1:11 to seal the win, including making all six of his free throws in the final 43 seconds.

Payton Pritchard had 14 points, and Will Richardson and Victor Bailey Jr. added 13 each for Oregon (4-2).

"We weren't a team on defense. We were all individuals," Pritchard said. "This is a terrible loss. If we're going to turn around our season right here, we either get better from this or we don't."
