Bulldogs finish second at annual John Rysdam tourney

By Gerry Steele
gsteele@bakercityherald.com

Baker wrestlers placed second in the team standings Saturday at the annual John Rysdam Memorial Tournament at Elgin.

Eight Bulldogs won their weight classes — Gavin Stone (106), Isael Duran (113), Alex Duran (132), Colton Anderson (145), Hunter Lind (152B), Eithen Hatfield (182B), Hon Rushton (182) and Jesse Maldonado (195).

Second-place winners were Mariano Duran (120), Dakota Ballou (145G), Ian Feldmeier (152), Gauge Bloomer (170), and Ayden Welk (182B).

Taking third were Trevor Tidwell (120) and Lucian Yervasi (220).

Conner Jensen (138B), Alex Davila (145), Jake Eskew (160) and Alex Ritter (195) placed fourth.

Jimmy Hunt (138B) was fifth.

The Bulldogs will compete on Friday and Saturday at the Best of the West tournament in Tri-Cities, Wash.

49ers nip Seahawks in OT

By Josh Dubow
AP Pro Football Writer

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — The stage was all set for a playoff-clinching party for the Seattle Seahawks with a game against a struggling rival they had dominated for five years running.

Then a missed extra point, botched kickoff coverage and a record-setting day of penalties combined to send the Seahawks home without a celebration following a 26-23 overtime loss to the San Francisco 49ers on Sunday that snapped a 10-game winning streak in the rivalry.

"I just feel like everyone needs to wake up," Seattle defensive lineman Frank Clark said. "I feel like I need to wake up, the rest of the team, the coaches, everyone needs to wake up. We want to finish this out strong, like we've been talking about. I feel like it has to be a joint effort. Everybody has to step up and be accountable."

The day started off well for the Seahawks (8-6), who forced a three-and-out on the opening drive and then easily moved downfield to score on Russell Wilson's 5-yard touchdown pass to Doug Baldwin.

But any thought that things would go as easy for Seattle this week as it did two weeks ago in a 43-16 win at home over San Francisco (4-10) was put to rest when Sebastian Janikowski missed the extra point and Richie James Jr. returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown.

That put the Seahawks down 7-6 and they never led the rest of the way against a team playing out the string of another lost season.

Seattle managed to tie the game at 20 early in the fourth quarter when Chris Carson scored on fourth-and-goal from the 1, breaking a tackle from D.J. Jones in the backfield and then fighting through another from Elijah Lee to get the score for the highlight of his 119-yard rushing day.

The teams then traded field goals before the 49ers stepped up defensively with three straight stops against Russell Wilson and the Seahawks to set the stage for Robbie Gould's game-winning 36-yard field goal in overtime that handed Seattle its first loss against San Francisco since 2013.

Coach Pete Carroll said he didn't believe his team overlooked the 49ers, even with a big showdown coming next week against Patrick Mahomes and the Kansas City Chiefs.

"I don't think any of that is what happened," Carroll said. "I think we were sloppy with the penalties situation. All of the numbers match up to how we played. The running numbers, the third down numbers were the best we've had in quite a while.

"Defense kept the numbers down, played really well in the second half. So, we did a lot of good things like we normally do. Two of the last three weeks, we've had four penalties. So, we had 14 today for 148 yards, it's really hard to overcome that and we weren't able to in a close game."

Seattle committed three personal fouls to help San Francisco get a field goal in the third quarter and then had holding calls on its final three drives of the game to thwart any momentum.

The 148 yards in penalties were the most in franchise history, with Shaquill Griffin called for pass interference against Dante Pettis that turned an incomplete pass on second-and-15 to a first down at the Seattle 41 in overtime.

"I think it looked different because of the refs," Griffin said. "That's just the honest answer. I feel like we haven't had this many flags called against us since I've been here. It sucks that it happened, but I can't blame it on them. We can't put ourselves in that position. That's completely on us."

A 16-yard run by Jeff Wilson Jr. got the 49ers in field-goal range and then Gould delivered the game-winner three plays later.

Mariota, Titans win third straight

By Tom Canavan
AP Sports Writer

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Tennessee Titans are hoping to get to the playoffs riding the tandem of Derrick and the Defense.

It had been a perfect formula the last couple of weeks, and on a rainy Sunday it led to a third straight win and the Titans' first shutout in 18 years.

Bruising halfback Derrick Henry had his second straight big game with a career-high 33 carries for 170 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Tennessee (8-6) kept its late-season playoff push alive and ended the New York Giants' postseason hopes with a 17-0 victory.

"We're happy with whatever works and helps us win games," Henry said of the new dynamic duo. "If that's it, then we'll keep on doing it. Whatever gives us the best opportunity to win games, I think we're going to stick with that. Hat's off to the defense, pitching a shutout."

The shutout was the Titans' first since a 31-0 win over the Cowboys on Christmas Day in 2000. Over the last two games, the defense has allowed nine points.

Henry, who scored on two 1-yards runs, has never been better. He had a franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns in a win over Jacksonville on Dec. 6, and his 408 yards over the last two games is the best in the Titans' era. Earl Campbell ran for more when the team was the Houston Oilers.

"I think he's just finding seams and when it comes down to it, there's only one ball," said quarterback Marcus Mariota , who was 12 of 20 for 88 yards. "We just have to find a way to get it to everybody. Derrick had the opportunity in the past couple of weeks to have more carries, and I think he's done a great job with it."
