

Baker students qualify for FBLA state event

Forty-five Baker High School students and 11 from Baker Middle School will advance to the state Future Business Leaders Conference this spring based on their performances at the Regional Skills Conference last week at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande.

In addition to taking part in the skills contests, students also toured the EOU campus and attended workshops on topics such as financial aid, collegiate athletics, how to “dress for success,” and planning for the future, Toni Zikmund, FBLA adviser, stated in an email to the Herald.

HONEY

Fortunately a neighbor happened to be driving the opposite direction on the road, so Honey was between the two vehicles.

The neighbor was able to pick up the dog, which had in previous days fled from potential rescuers, including Madson.

“She cuddled up in a blanket and didn’t look like she wanted to go anywhere,” Madson said.

She had bought Honey during a dog show in Portland in January.

The dog had been living with her for less than a week when Honey climbed a stack of lawn furniture and leaped from the deck at Madson’s home.

Madson said she was overwhelmed by the generosity of her neighbors and other residents, who donated their time to help search for Honey. Others lent snowshoes and used drones to search for the dog.

“Everybody has been absolutely wonderfully supportive,” Madson said Thursday. “It’s an incredible community.”
