Celtics take 1-0 lead on Bucks

By Rich Rovito
Associated Press

MILWAUKEE — Al Horford stood his ground as Giannis Antetokounmpo charged his way.

Antetokounmpo, the Milwaukee Bucks' MVP candidate, desperately wanted to provide a spark and cut into a second-half lead against Horford's Boston Celtics in the opener of a second-round playoff series on Sunday. He drove hard into the lane, quickly switched directions and tried to lay the ball up over Horford, who met him at the rim and blocked the shot.

Antetokounmpo corralled the ball and went up a second time only to be met by Horford again, who this time spiked the ball to the court.

The Celtics clamped down on Antetokounmpo all game and cruised past the Bucks, 112-90.

Kyrie Irving had 26 points and 11 assists, tying his playoff career high, and Horford added 20 points and 11 rebounds to pace Boston, which controlled the game for long stretches while playing stingy defense against Antetokounmpo.

Game 2 is Tuesday in Milwaukee.

Rangers smash Mariners

SEATTLE (AP) — Elvis Andrus, Hunter Pence, Logan Forsythe and Shin-Soo Choo homered, Lance Lynn allowed one run over seven innings and the Texas Rangers routed the Seattle Mariners again, 14-1 on Sunday.

Coming off a 15-1 win on Saturday in which they had season highs in runs and hits with 20, the Rangers had 17 hits to earn a split of the four-game series with Seattle.

Pence was 3-for-5 with four RBIs and two runs scored, and Choo and Danny Santana also had three hits apiece.
