Baker picked up its second nonleague girls soccer win Tuesday, stopping Nyssa 5-1 at the Baker Sports Complex.

Baker (2-4) has defeated Nyssa twice this season by identical scores.

"Our goal was to take more shots and spread out more," said Baker coach Kristen Rushton.

"These kids are not afraid. We talked at halftime, and the girls really did perform better and communicated better."

Nyssa scored the match's first goal 13 minutes into the match. Then it was all Baker.

Goals by Rebecca

Daniels, Sydney Younger, Sydnee Pierce and Daphne Thomas gave Baker a 4-1 halftime lead.

Younger added a second goal after halftime to complete the scoring.

Baker's defense allowed Nyssa just one shot in the second half. Nyssa crossed midfield only two or three times in the half.

Baker returns to Greater Oregon League play Saturday at Ontario in an 11 a.m. PDT match.

Baker scored the first three goals then held off Nyssa for a 4-3 win in nonleague boys soccer Tuesday at the Baker Sports Complex.

"I think the kids were a little tired in the second half, after playing three games in four days," said Baker coach Victor Benites.

Brylan Robb started Baker's scoring with a goal from straight on in front of the Nyssa net.

Jamison Reguiero then scored a three-goal "hat trick" to give Baker a 4-1 lead.

But Nyssa made things interesting, scoring the final two goals of the afternoon.

Baker (4-1-2) returns to Greater Oregon League play at Ontario Saturday at 1 p.m. PDT.

Baker's nonleague match scheduled for Sept. 30 at home against Fruitland has been canceled.

Baker boys tie Pendleton

Baker's boys soccer team picked up a victory Monday before ever taking the field at the Baker Sports Complex.

The Bulldogs were awarded a forfeit win over Four Rivers by the OSAA.

Baker was leading Four Rivers 4-1 in the first half last week when the visiting coach received two yellow cards and was ejected. Since the team had no assistant coach, officials ended the game.

Just before Baker's nonleague match with Pendleton the Oregon School Activities Association's website listed Baker as the match winner.

When Baker took the pitch against Pendleton on Monday the teams played to a 2-2 tie.

Baker's tying goal came on a header from Isaac Nemece after a crossing pass from Jamison Reguiero. Wyatt Hawkins scored Baker's other goal.

Benites said the Bulldogs had a chance to win the match, but missed a penalty kick.
