TURNING BACK THE PAGES

50 YEARS AGO from the Democrat-Herald November 1, 1969

CRANE — The unbeatable Huntington Locomotives crushed Crane 82-0 here Friday night.

The Locos rushed for 431 yards, completed 10 of 16 passes for 138 yards for a total of 569. Don McLean, Sherman Murray and Chuck McCoy each had three touchdowns.

25 YEARS AGO from the Baker City Herald November 1, 1994

ENTERPRISE — The U.S. Forest Service has awarded a contract to Anderson Logging of Naples, Idaho, to build four overlooks and two trailheads on the Oregon rim of Hells Canyon.

10 YEARS AGO from the Baker City Herald November 2, 2009

A federal spending bill approved by the Senate last week includes $1.5 million to buy "islands" of private property inside the boundaries of the Hells Canyon National Recreation Area.

ONE YEAR AGO from the Baker City Herald November 2, 2018

Studded tire season started Thursday and although local shops were busy, employees said the real rush usually doesn't happen until the season's first snowfall.

Oregon limits the use of studded tires because studies have shown that the metal studs that help keep vehicles from sliding on snow- or ice-covered roads also damage the pavement.

The Oregon Department of Transportation estimates studded tires cause $8.5 million in damage yearly.

Studded tires are legal from Nov. 1 through March 31. Occasionally the state extends the legal season for a couple of weeks when winter weather persists.

The fine for driving on studded tires outside the legal season is close to $200.

In Baker City, Lew Brothers Les Schwab, Commercial Tire and Baker Valley Mobile Tire all install studded tires. Although the legal season started Thursday, tire shops can install tires earlier if customers ask.

Lew Brothers manager Jake Pearce said Nov. 1 is busier than an average day, but not the busiest.

Last year, Broadway Street was open to traffic, and crossing guards had to help trick-or-treaters cross Broadway at Main.

Poe said she was pleased by the large number of businesses that aren't located downtown that handed out treats on Main Street.

Among the additions this year were B&K Salvage's haunted house, and the National Guard, Poe said.

"I think it went well," she said.

OBITUARIES

Anita Curtis

Baker City, 1930-2019

Anita Ann Curtis, 89, of Baker City, died Oct. 28, 2019, at Nampa, Idaho.

Anita was born on March 30, 1930, at Abilene, Kansas, to Delmar and Noalita Nelson. At the age of 12 she moved with her family to Venice, California. Anita graduated from Venice High School in 1948. It was there that she met her good friend's brother, CG Curtis. They were married in 1949.

In 1952 Anita and CG moved to Sepulveda, California, there they raised three children. In 1988 Anita and CG moved to Camarillo, California. They were faithful members and active in the Church of the Nazarene in Van Nuys, North Hills and Camarillo, California, and in Anita's last year, in Baker City.

Anita worked for Ralph's Grocery Store about 12 years. She volunteered at the Reagan Library and volunteered at Los Robles Hospital for 15 years.

Anita was well-known for her baking skills and she loved to share her goodies with others. She was affectionately known as the "pie lady."

Anita and CG loved to travel and they visited many parts of the world.

After CG's death in 2008, Anita continued to live in Camarillo until May of this year when she moved to Baker City to live with her son, Cliff, and his wife. She enjoyed the rural surroundings, their lavender farm, the wildlife and the family dogs.

Anita is survived by her children, Lynda (Ron) Warfield, Kim (Kelley) Gilliland and Cliff (Michelle) Curtis; eight grandchildren, Corey (Jamie) Gilliland, Kaylene (Greg) Buchanan, Kyle (Jenna) Gilliland, Brandon Bridwell, Clint Curtis, Rosanne Curtis, Anita (Slim) Murray and Lowell Curtis; 10 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, CG Curtis; and her brother, Robert Nelson.

Anita was loved greatly and will be sorely missed.

Gloria Gordon

Baker City, 1927-2019

Gloria Lee Gordon, 92, of Baker City, died Oct. 30, 2019 in Baker City.

At Gloria's request, there will be no service.

Gloria was born on Oct. 11, 1927, at Detroit, Michigan. GG, as she was affectionately known, grew up during the Depression and moved with her family wherever her father could find work. She ended up in California where she raised her five children. At the age of 51, Gloria realized her dream of owning a used book store. She opened Secondhand Prose in 1979 and enjoyed 21 years in the book business. Even after losing her ability to read, GG continued listening to books on tape every day.

Gloria is survived by her sisters, Joy Goetschius, Rochelle Campbell and Vicki Piper; her children, Steve Stadler (Andrea Stadler), Leslie Stadler Heron (Paul Heron), Randy Stadler and Gretchen Stadler (Barbara O'Neal); her grandchildren, Geoffrey Patterson (Melissa Martin), Mitchell Owen (Anna Greenwood), Josh Bystrom (Tenneil MacMaster), Corrina Stadler and Brianna Stadler; and her great-granddaughter, Betty Patterson.

Gloria was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Clara Houghtaling; her son, Christopher Bystrom; and her daughter-in-law, Sabrina Stadler.

To celebrate Gloria's memory, please support your public library or shop at your local independent bookstore.
