Some Baker County residents received a flu shot Tuesday without leaving their cars.

The Baker County Health and Emergency Management departments conducted an exercise that tested their ability to distribute medical supplies during a natural disaster or other emergency.

The event ran from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the former Oregon Department of Transportation property at 1050 S. Bridge St., which the county now owns, near Mount Hope Cemetery.

Residents could drive in to receive a flu shot as well as a first-aid kit, water and either a blanket or poncho.

In addition to boosting the county's flu vaccination rate, the event served as a Point of Distribution (POD) exercise for county officials.

PODs are places where residents could go following a natural disaster to pick up medicine. Tuesday's exercise was the first the county has done.

Although the first-aid kits, water and clothing were free, the flu shots weren't. The county did bill insurance companies, most of which cover annual flu shots.

Participants could choose to stay in their vehicle while receiving the inoculation, but they did have to fill out forms.

Baker man arrested on assault charge

By Chris Collins
ccollins@bakercityherald.com

A Baker City man is being held in jail on $175,000 bail for allegedly breaking another man's left arm and causing bruises on his back and neck by hitting him repeatedly with a metal pipe.

Jarrold Beau Linscott, 42, of 1950 Myrtle St., was arrested at 6:41 p.m. Friday at the Baker City Police Department where Linscott was being held on other unrelated charges.

The alleged assault started at 11:10 a.m. Friday at a Haines residence at 1016 Cole St., according to court documents.

The victim, Jerad Paul Patton, 34, of 1751 Church St., drove himself to the hospital where he was treated for his injuries and released, the court records stated.

Patton was interviewed by Baker County Deputy Jeff Spencer at the hospital, a Baker County Sheriff's press release stated. Patton told

Linscott

Spencer he had driven to Haines to drop off his child with the child's mother. Patton said when he got out of his car, Linscott came from the child's mother's home, started arguing with him, and then hit him repeatedly.

Linscott was arraigned Tuesday in Baker County Circuit Court on charges of attempted first-degree assault, second-degree assault, and second-degree criminal mischief.

The criminal mischief charge alleges he used the pipe to damage the windshield of Patton's vehicle.

Linscott also is being held on charges of theft of a motor vehicle for taking a Chevrolet Silverado belonging to Kristine Stehle from 2195 Failing at about 6:30 p.m. Friday. Other charges include recklessly endangering another person for causing risk to Gage Niehaus, who jumped in the pickup truck in an attempt to stop Linscott, reckless driving and fourth-degree assault of Niehaus.

OBITUARIES

'Bill' Thompson

Richland, 1932-2019

William "Bill" Thompson 87, died Nov. 4, 2019, at his home in Richland with his family by his side.

Bill Thompson

A memorial service with military honors will take place Thursday, Nov. 14, at 11 a.m. at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Halfway.

Friends are invited to join the family for a reception immediately following at the church.

William Albert was born on July 10, 1932, at Portland to Marion Agnes Babcock and Lyle Bert Thompson. He graduated from Gresham High School in 1950. He was married out of high school and they had 2 children. In 1951 Bill enlisted into the U.S. Navy like his father before him. He fought in the Korean War on the USS Yorktown carrier. During his Navy career, he received an education for electronics. He was honorably discharged in 1954.

Bill returned home from the service and met Wilma La Floyce. They were married in 1956 and had 6 children together: Brian (Kathy), Debra (Don), Diana, William (Sherril), Steven (Angelina), Peggy (now deceased) and Kodie. After the passing of his wife he met Beverly Jean Alley in late 2001. Bill moved from California to Oregon and they were married on Feb. 6, 2002. At that time he gained a stepdaughter, Cindy (Randy).

Bill and Bev enjoyed making memories and traveling. They decided to settle in Richland. He was a member of the American Legion and when moving to Richland, became a member of VFW Post 7847. He lived out his days reminiscing about the good ol' days with friends and family.

Bill was a man of God who was well loved and respected by many in his lifetime. He loved to help others and he could be fun and playful though he was a strict and serious man when he needed to be. He really enjoyed playing golf, fishing and loved the Dallas Cowboys football team. A favorite style of music was country. He was always singing and dancing and could play many instruments. For approximately five years, he and Bev ran karaoke night at the Shorthorn in Richland.

He was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Bill loved to see the beautiful world God has made for us all. He was interested in fixing things so he made his career out of fixing and engineering electronic equipment with several companies: Western/PAC bell, retired AT&T, GE, over his years of work service. Bill will be deeply missed and we will carry a piece of his heart with us all.

We'll surely be happy when we see a rose we'll think of you, husband, Daddy, Papa each day, his family said. So between now and then, till we see you again, we'll be loving you.

Bill is survived by his wife, Bev; his children; 11 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Bill the family suggests the VFW Post 7847 or the American Legion.
