Kings beat slumping Trail Blazers

By Michael Wagaman

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — After a slow and sluggish start in their first game without leading scorer De'Aaron Fox, Sacramento eventually found a nice rhythm with Bogdan Bogdanovic running the offense.

Luke Walton was even more impressed with his team's defense, something that's been an ongoing issue for the Kings.

Bogdanovic had 25 points and 10 assists, Nemanja Bjelica added 19 points and 12 rebounds and the Kings won in their first game since losing leading scorer Fox to an ankle injury, beating the slumping Portland Trail Blazers 107-99 on Tuesday night.

Sacramento forced 17 turnovers and prevented Portland's potent backcourt tandem of Damian Lillard and CJ McCollum from taking over.

"It's what we've been preaching about every day since Day 1 of training camp," Walton said. "I'll be the first to admit it needs to get a lot better. We started the game, we couldn't make anything. That's why defense is important."

The Kings overcame a sloppy first half when they shot 36.7 percent, made a big run in the third quarter, then pulled away in the fourth to end a two-game losing streak to the Blazers.

Lillard had 27 points and McCollum added 24 for the Blazers (4-7), who have lost five of six. Nearly half of Lillard's points (13) came at the free throw line.

OREGON STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL

Beavers' rally falls short against Sooners

PORTLAND — It looked like Oklahoma had its game against Oregon State well in hand, but the Beavers were surprisingly resilient.

Kristian Doolittle had 19 points and 16 rebounds, and the Sooners stretched their season-opening winning streak to three games with a 77-69 victory over the Beavers in the inaugural Phil Knight Invitational on Tuesday night.

Down by as many as 20 points in the second half, the Beavers closed to within six points in the final minute.

"Both teams competed really hard," Oklahoma coach Lon Kruger said. "In the second half, we got a little bit of a margin and then of course Oregon State did a great job of fighting back and finishing the game out."

Tres Tinkle overcame a slow start to finish with 18 points and 10 rebounds for the Beavers (2-1).

After a close first half, Doolittle's 3-pointer gave the Sooners a 66-46 lead with 7:12 left. The Beavers showed some spark with a 7-0 run that closed the gap to 66-53.

Austin Reaves sank a 3-pointer that gave Oklahoma a 71-57 lead with 3:49 left and it looked like the Beavers were out of it, but Ethan Thompson's 3-pointer pulled them within 73-67 with 35.8 seconds to go. Ultimately Oregon State couldn't overcome the deficit.

"Great effort to try to fight back at the end there," said Oregon State coach Wayne Tinkle, who said he gathered the team together with about eight minutes left to try and inspire a comeback.

Reaves finished with 17 points for Oklahoma, while Thompson had 17 for the Beavers.

The Beavers were coming off an 80-74 victory at home Saturday over Iowa State. Tres Tinkle led the way with 27 points and 11 rebounds.

The Sooners effectively shut him down, at least at the start, and he had just four points in the first half.

Wild finish in the Bay Area: Seahawks nip 49ers in OT

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — Russell Wilson high-stepped his way down the sideline before hugging coach Pete Carroll after Jason Myers' kick split the uprights.

After a wild overtime that featured a rare Wilson interception, a missed field goal by San Francisco and a questionable decision from 49ers coach Kyle Shanahan, the Seahawks had knocked the Niners from the ranks of the unbeaten and made sure the NFC West would remain tight down the stretch.

Myers kicked a 42-yard field goal after Chase McLaughlin missed a kick earlier in overtime, and the Seahawks handed the San Francisco 49ers their first loss with a 27-24 victory on Monday night.

"That was the craziest game I've ever been a part of," Wilson said.

Myers gave Seattle (8-2) its second straight overtime win after Wilson got the Seahawks into position with an 18-yard scramble on third-and-3. After being iced by a timeout, Myers delivered one week after missing two field goals and an extra point, moving Seattle to the heels of San Francisco (8-1) in the NFC West.

The Seahawks blew an opportunity to win the game on the opening possession of overtime when Wilson was intercepted at the 4 by Dre Greenlaw.

Greenlaw returned it 47 yards to the Seattle 49 and the Niners moved the ball 20 yards before McLaughlin missed badly to the left on a 47-yard attempt. McLaughlin had made his first three field goals after being signed earlier in the week when Robbie Gould went down with a quadriceps injury.

"Just rushed it a little bit, hit it a little high and unfortunately missed it," McLaughlin said.

The teams then traded punts, the Seahawks took over at their 36 with 1:25 remaining after Jimmy Garoppolo threw three straight incompletions as San Francisco burned only 14 seconds off the clock with Seattle out of timeouts.

"Definitely wish we had taken more time off the clock, but was counting on us catching one of those balls," Shanahan said.
