Steve’s Hometown Toyota of Ontario entered in to an agreement with its lenders to sell autos for the lowest possible payments in the market place and to cut prices by thousands of dollars “We know this will be huge for the consumer,” commented Mr. Mark Hribik, Used Car Director of Steve’s Hometown Toyota of Ontario. “One way or another, we intend to move our used vehicle inventory by offering deals to local residents that could save them thousands of dollars off current market value pricing. Therefore, the dealership will hold the area’s very own automotive “Blowout Sale” for 10 days only. Sunday, Dec. 15th - Tuesday, Dec. 24th We are stocked with top quality predriven makes and models, and due to new vehicle acquisitions, trade-ins, lease returns and more, we are loaded with inventory, and everything must go” stated Mr. Mark Hribik, Used Car Director. “We’ve never seen vehicle prices, down payments, and monthly payments this low.” He explains, “Instead of sending the cars to auction, we have decided to offer the savings along to local customers. This way, everybody wins. I can’t remember the last time so many vehicles were available at our dealership. It’s going to be huge! During the Automotive Inventory “Blowout Sale,” vehicles will be made available well below auction pricing for just $49 down and $49 per month.”* Furthermore, every type of credit worthiness will be accepted to obtain credit approval, even for those who may have had credit problems in the past. We are expecting a huge
