

2019: THE YEAR IN PICTURES

WHAT YOU'LL FIND INSIDE:

12 months. 12 pages. Each featuring excerpts from the month's top stories.

Oregon State Police photo

FEBRUARY 6 — A chain reaction crash involving three commercial trucks and six passenger vehicles closed the westbound lanes of Interstate 84 for several hours.

S. John Collins / Baker City Herald

APRIL 22 — Sophia Kelly tried her hand at the Shrine Kids Rodeo mutton busting.

Lisa Britton/For the Baker City Herald

AUGUST 2 — Late evening sunshine still illuminates the west slopes of Eagle Cap while Hidden Lake is in shadow.

S. John Collins / Baker City Herald

SEPTEMBER 23 — A study about soils found at different depths leaves Henry Hester with dirty hands and a smile.

S. John Collins / Baker City Herald

OCTOBER 2 — Law enforcement personnel, Kyle Ebeling, left, and Becky Monahan, take part in a training exercise.

Brandon Taylor/ Baker City Herald

AUGUST 19 — Metallica tribute band guitarist Bob Capka performs at the Tribute Fest.

S. John Collins / Baker City Herald

MAY 27 — World War II veteran Jim Lampkins, 96, pauses in memories of tragic events he witnessed aboard the naval destroyer U.S.S. Bradford in the South Pacific.

Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife photo

MARCH 18 — Wolves from the Snake River pack.

Kathy Orr/ Baker City Herald

JUNE 17 — Enthusiasts attend Baker City's first Blue Mountain Bigfoot Festival.

S. John Collins / Baker City Herald

SEPTEMBER 13 — Baker City Fire Department and law enforcement personnel pay respect and observance to the fallen heroes of September 11, 2001.

Jayson Jacoby/ Baker City Herald

MAY 10 — Sunrise over the Idaho mountains illuminates part of the Lookout Mountain unit near Brownlee Reservoir in eastern Baker County.

LA GRANDE
541-963-6033

BAKER CITY
541-523-1533

ENTERPRISE
541-426-9228

www.CarpetoneEO.com

Beautiful. Made Affordable.™

Thank you for your continued trust and loyalty!