Baker to host hoops seeding games

Baker's girls and boys basketball teams will play in Greater Oregon League seeding games Saturday evening in the Baker gym.

The Bulldogs' opponents will be decided this evening in La Grande, where La Grande will play Mac-Hi in both girls and boys contests.

The winners of those games will travel to Baker for Saturday's games. The girls game will tip off at 6 p.m., and the boys around 7:30 p.m. Saturday's games will determine the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds from the GOL in the Class 4A playoffs.

Both Baker teams have already clinched berths in the playoffs, which are set for March 6 (girls) and March 7 (boys).

The Baker girls, 22-2 on the season and on a 13-game winning streak, are likely to earn a home playoff game regardless of the outcome of Saturday's GOL seeding game, due to the Bulldogs No. 3 state ranking.

The Baker boys, 15-9 and winners of five straight, could also secure a home playoff game by winning Saturday and gaining the GOL's top seed.

This will be a busy weekend for BHS sports.

Two Baker swimmers, Brianna Stadler and Hollie Mays, each qualified in two events at the state swim meet Friday and Saturday in Tualatin. Two Baker girls relay teams also will compete at state.

The Baker boys wrestling team will compete in the district tournament Friday and Saturday at Ontario.

Newman released from hospital after crash

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Ryan Newman was released from a Florida hospital on Wednesday, two days after his frightening crash on the final lap of the Daytona 500.

Roush Fenway Racing released a photo of Newman leaving a Daytona Beach hospital holding the hands of his two young daughters.

The team said the 42-year-old Indiana native "continues to show great improvement." The team added that "true to his jovial nature, he has also been joking around with staff, friends and family while playing with his two daughters" and included a photo of Newman standing in a hospital gown, smiling.
