Into the Dark: Tentacles

“Movie: Tentacles”

In honor of Valentine's Day, horror masters Blumhouse Productions comes forth with this feature length thriller about a couple (Dana Drori, “High Fidelity,” and newcomer Casey Diedrick) who fall head over heels for each other, entwining their lives, but soon discover their newfound intimacy has transformed into something terrifying. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Lost Girls & Love Hotels”

From Swedish filmmaker William Olsson (“The Traveler”) comes this 2020 drama that casts Alexandra Daddario (“Baywatch”) as an American in Tokyo trying to put her past behind her by teaching English to flight attendants and hooking up with random men in bars. She winds up in danger, however, after falling for one of her flings, a member of the yakuza.

“Movie: Sonic the Hedgehog”

Wanted in another world for his amazing powers, Sonic (voiced by Ben Schwartz) comes to Earth to hide from pursuers, then jeopardizes his peaceful life in Montana by setting off a power outage that alerts the sinister Dr. Robotnik (Jim Carrey). Sonic then finds allies in a sheriff and the lawman's wife (James Marsden, Tika Sumpter) while fleeing to San Francisco.

“Movie: Nomadland”

From writer/director Chloé Zhao (“The Rider”) comes this drama movie that stars Frances McDormand (“Fargo”) as a woman who travels through the American West and lives out of her van after losing everything in the Great Recession. David Strathairn, Charlene Swankie and Linda May also star in this film that became a favorite on the film fest circuit.
