Art classes resume at Crossroads

BAKER CITY — Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, 2020 Auburn Ave., Baker City, is restarting art classes this month.

Ginger Rembold will teach a class on batik at 6 p.m. Thursday, March 18. This workshop, for ages 12 and older, is an introductory class of the Indonesian and Indian art of batik, which combines a wax resist process, dye and fabric. This class will involve hot wax and will run two to three hours.

Participants should bring a simple design idea with a pattern no bigger than 12 inches square, plus a fine-tip black Sharpie. Stain glass patterns work well for the batik process. Additional hair dryers are also helpful. Dye, wax, fabric and tools all provided. Multiple patterns also available for student use.

Cost is $24 for Crossroads members, or $36 for nonmembers. There also is a $5 supply fee.

Rembold will offer another class, this one on glass etching, from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, March 25. This is for ages 12 and older, although ages 8 to 11 can attend with a paid adult. Participants should bring three to four glass items to etch (The Dollar Tree is a good source), plus simple pattern ideas sized to the glassware. Also, bring an exacto knife and an old towel to cushion the work surface.

Cost is $16 members, $24 nonmembers. There is a $5 supply fee.

Beginning March 10, Becky Mancino Litke will resume her "Learn to Love Watercolors and Pastels" class. It meets Wednesdays at Crossroads. There are two sessions: 3-5 p.m. or 5-7 p.m.

Cost is $16 per session for members, or $24 for nonmembers.
