BIGGIE

“Movie: Biggie: I Got a Story to Tell”

Made in collaboration with the rap artist's estate, this documentary from Emmett Malloy (“Big Easy Express”) gives an intimate portrait of the man whose rapid ascent and tragic end has been at the center of rap lore for more than twenty years. Rare footage and new interviews with friends and family shed new light on the life of the man born Christopher Wallace. (ORIGINAL)

“Nate Bargatze: The Greatest Average American”

The Tennessee-born comedian, actor and podcast host reflects on being part of the Oregon Trail generation, meeting his wife while working at Applebee's and the challenges of being a father and husband in this stand-up performance recorded outdoors before a socially distanced audience last October at Universal Studios in Orlando, Fla. (ORIGINAL)

“Sky rojo”

From Spain comes this crime action series that follows the flight of Coral, Wendy and Gina (Verónica Sánchez, Lali Espósito, Yany Prado,) three prostitutes who embark on a dangerous journey after fleeing from nightclub owner and pimp Romeo (Miguel Silvestre) and his henchmen. Enric Auquer and Asier Etxeandia are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

“Country Comfort”

Katharine McPhee (“Smash”) stars as Bailey, a country singer whose life and career took an unexpected turn, forcing her to take a job as a nanny for cowboy Beau's (Eddie Cibrian, “Rosewood”) five children, using her Southern charm to navigate family dynamics, win over her charges and become the mother they've been missing. Ricardo Hurtado and Shiloh Verrico also star in this comedy-drama series. (ORIGINAL)
