tonight's best

Elizabeth Perkins

8 p.m. on NBC Manifest

This eerie thriller returns for Season 3, which reportedly will answer the central question of "Manifest": What happened to the passengers of Flight 828? As the action resumes, it's been more than a year since their miraculous homecoming, and while the Stone family continues trying to protect their friends and outwit their enemies, new challenges will test how much they trust the callings, as well as one another. One thing's certain, though: No matter what happens, it's all connected. Melissa Roxburgh and Josh Dallas star.

8:31 p.m. on CBS United States of AI

This new buddy sitcom follows the tight friendship between Marine Combat veteran Riley (Parker Young), who is trying to readjust to civilian life in Ohio, and Awalmir (nicknamed Al, played by Adhir Kalyan), who was Riley's interpreter during his tour of duty in Afghanistan. Now, Al is newly arrived in the United States and hoping to start a new life here.

9 p.m. on FOX The Moodys

As Season 2 opens tonight with two back-to-back episodes, Moody patriarch Sean Sr. (Denis Leary) is contemplating retirement. He wants to turn his heating and air business over to his hapless older son, Sean Jr. (Jay Baruchel), then cross America in an RV with wife Ann (Elizabeth Perkins). Meanwhile, daughter Bridget (Chelsea Frei), newly divorced, has moved home while her townhouse is being renovated, and commitment-phobic kid brother Dan (Francois Arnaud) is back home as well, having backed out of another relationship.

10 p.m. on NBC Law & Order: Organized Crime

Detective Elliot Stabler (Christopher Meloni), who left the Special Victims Unit of the New York Police Department under a cloud at the end of Season 12, returns to the department to lead a new task force against organized crime in this new spinoff. Not surprisingly, he quickly discovers both New York and its police force have changed dramatically in the decade since he previously worked there. The cast also includes Dylan McDermott, Tamara Taylor, Danielle Moné Truitt and Ainsley Seiger.
