Topher Grace

8 p.m. on CW Kung Fu

Greg Berlanti is among the executive producers on this new female-driven reboot of the David Carradine-led Western drama that aired on ABC from 1972-75. Olivia Liang stars as Nicky Shen, a Chinese-American woman in her early 20s who drops out of college and embarks on a life-changing journey to a remote monastery in China. When she returns to San Francisco, though, she finds her hometown overrun with crime and corruption. Kheng Hua Tan, Shannon Dang, Eddie Liu, Gavin Stenhouse, Vanessa Kai and Tzi Ma co-star.

8:30 p.m. on ABC Home Economics

Topher Grace ("That '70s Show") is both star and an executive producer on this new sitcom, which charts the complicated and occasionally uncomfortable relationship among three adult siblings. One of the trio is a member of the elite "one percent," another has a middle-class lifestyle, while the third is barely hanging on financially.

10 p.m. on ABC A Million Little Things

Eddie (David Giuntoli) finally reveals the painful truth about himself, but it's Katherine (Grace Park) who must suffer the consequences yet again in a new episode called "The Lost Sheep." Elsewhere, Rome and Regina (Romany Malco, Christina Moses) lend support to Tyrell (guest star Adam Swain) and his mother, while Maggie and Jamie (Allison Miller, guest star Chris Geere) are forced to make a candid assessment of their relationship status. Terry Chen, Lou Betty Jr., Bobbi Charlton and Andrea Savage also guest star.

10:05 p.m. on USA Queen of the South

Most of the main cast members are expected to return as this English-language adaptation of a hit telenovela returns for its fifth and final season. Most fans, however, probably will be focused primarily on James Valdez (Peter Gadiot), who reappeared in the closing moments of Season 4, badly injured yet bearing a dire warning for Teresa Mendoza (Alice Braga), the titular "queen of the south." Additional story details are scant, but Season 5 reportedly will focus on a feud between Teresa's drug venture and Russian gangsters.
