tonight's best

Melanie Scrofano

8 p.m. on CBS
MacGyver

Mac (Lucas Till) and his team enter the intensely competitive world of Italian car culture in their pursuit of a deadly crime boss who has gone into hiding in the new episode "Barn Find & Engine Oil & La Punzonatura & Lab Rats & Tachometer." During the mission, Mac is forced to lean on Desi (Levy Tran) after discovering that he seems to be losing the ability to control his hands. Tristin Mays and Meredith Eaton also star.

8 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: Tyler Perry's Acrimony

Tyler Perry wrote, directed and produced this 2018 psychological thriller starring Taraji P. Henson ("Empire") as Melinda, a devoted wife who is content to support her engineer husband, Robert (Lyrq Bent), as he struggles to find a buyer for his innovative battery design. Eventually, however, Melinda realizes that her self-absorbed spouse is merely using her as a human ATM machine while he looks elsewhere for romance. Crystle Stewart, Ptosha Storey, Jazmyn Simon and Ajiona Alexus also are featured.

9 p.m. on CBS
Magnum P.I.

While working a case involving the recovery of stolen truffles worth a fortune, Magnum and Higgins (Jay Hernandez, Perdita Weeks) are shocked to find a baby abandoned at the gates of their estate in the new episode "Cry Murder." They can't help suspecting it's not a coincidence they're already trying to locate the infant's mother. Zachary Knighton, Stephen Hill and Tim Kang also star.

10 p.m. on SYFY
Wynonna Earp

Series creator Emily Andras breathed audacious new life into Beau Smith's supernatural comic book series, producing a sassy, genre-defying Western horror comedy with a defiant female-centric take on the occasionally violent action. The show's true life force, though, came from leading lady Melanie Scrofano, whose portrayal of the title character — the cranky great-great-granddaughter of Wild West lawman Wyatt Earp — has been a peppy joy from start to finish. Fan favorites Tim Rozon and Varun Saranga, among others, likewise helped carry the show, which ends its four-season run tonight.
